FOREWORD

Perhaps it is a sign of maturity when we realize that we have to do things we don't like to do. As we begin to grow up we find there is a sound reason for many of these things. Responsibilities, tasks and activities — some enjoyable — fill our high school years. We learn to respect authority because it brings order to our lives. There must be leaders to set goals, guide and supervise.

We go to school to learn. Each class trains us in a particular field. Athletics build physical skills and give us relaxation and fun. Organizations give us opportunities to develop talent, to encourage leadership and honor, and to serve our student body. But, finally, each of us must choose our own set of values.

The 1966 Patriot has attempted to reflect the aims and ideals of all areas of school life at Patrick Henry.

Mr. Pitzer is responsible for the volumes of paper work necessary to reflect P.H. to the community and other schools.

MR. PITZER RETURNS

Mr. C. Lewis Pitzer, Jr. former dean of McQuilkin Hall, returned to Patrick Henry this year to fill the demanding position of Principal.

He is the representative of the school at professional and civic functions, the official greeter to our many visitors, and mediator among parents, teachers and students in every possible combination.

Mr. Pitzer's keen interest in students extends beyond the high school years; he contacts graduates for suggestions on improving our school.

Mrs. White, secretary, is 'second to none' in Mr. Pitzer's words. Miss Cundiff, with her ready smile, completes the staff who handle transcripts, reports, and the ever-ringing telephone.

Mr. Pitzer and Mrs. White consult one of the many IBM records in planning their day's work.

Mrs. White answers an endless variety of telephone inquiries in her pleasant, efficient manner.

Tired from her working day, but smiling — Carol Cundiff.

Posting books is an exacting task, and Mrs. Grant shows the concentration required to get it done.

"See Mr. Graybill" or "Try the Activities Office" are answers to many questions asked by P.H. students. The door of the Activities Office opens at 8 and closes at 4—it is one of the busiest places around the school.

The school calendar, lost-and-found, the book store, audio-visuals and textbooks are all responsibilities of Mr. Graybill and his assistant, Mrs. Grant.

They must also collect, account for, and deposit all school funds. Other chores such as selling tickets to games, chartering buses for school trips and scheduling athletic events round out their busy schedule.

Mr. Graybill acts as business manager for school publications and, as if he weren't busy enough, teaches one class in driver training.

SEE MR. GRAYBILL

Mr. Graybill pauses outside his office as he returns from talking with the coaches about students qualified to participate in District events.

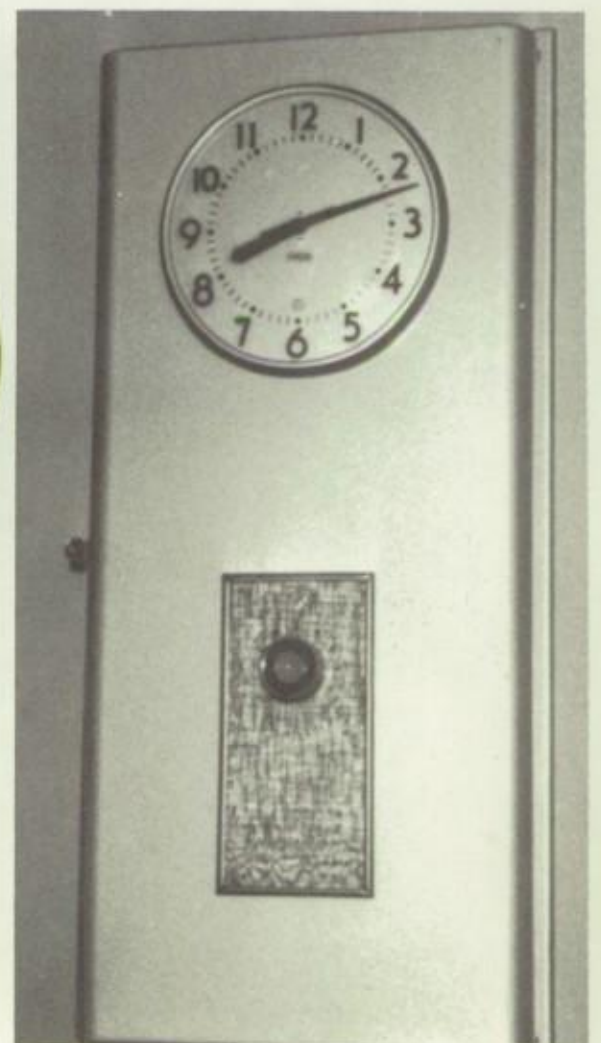

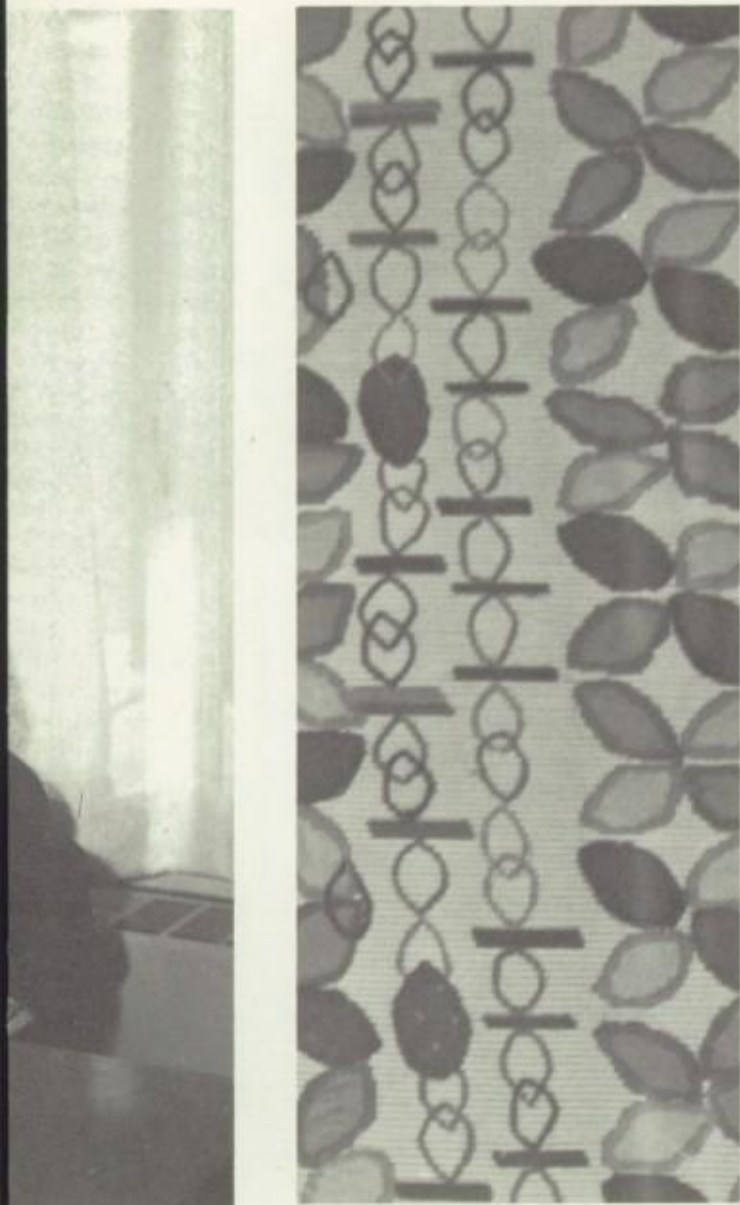

Each day's receipts must be counted and ready for deposit before the Wells Fargo truck arrives.

Mr. Nave pauses while doing paper work in McQuilkin Hall.

deans

Mr. Bartol works in his Parsons office.

Mr. Taylor proudly watches some of his students from his Persinger office.

The three deans, Mr. Carl Nave, Mr. Donald Bartol and Mr. Benjamin Taylor, are known and respected by all students. As the head of his hall, each dean has many varied responsibilities.

The deans often take time to converse with students and maintain the informal student-teacher relationship found at Patrick Henry.

In her Persinger Hall office, Miss Martin looks up information for a college bound student.

Mr. Bishop tests new equipment for the Guidance Department.

The counselors also teach. Mrs. Miller is going to her fifth period English class.

GUIDANCE FOR FUTURE

Can you imagine what it would be like to give advice to over 1200 students concerning their future education and occupation? Sounds impossible, and yet it is done every year by the Guidance Department.

Mr. J. Bishop, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Ward, and Miss Martin are responsible for planning student schedules and keeping personal files up to date. This means recording academic credits, character recommendations, and standard test scores. Among tests offered at Patrick Henry are STEP and SCAT tests, the NEDT exams, and the College Boards.

College Night aided the Guidance Department by giving juniors and seniors an opportunity to talk to representatives of area colleges and universities. Once a month the Kiwanis of Roanoke sponsored vocational assemblies specifically for Juniors.

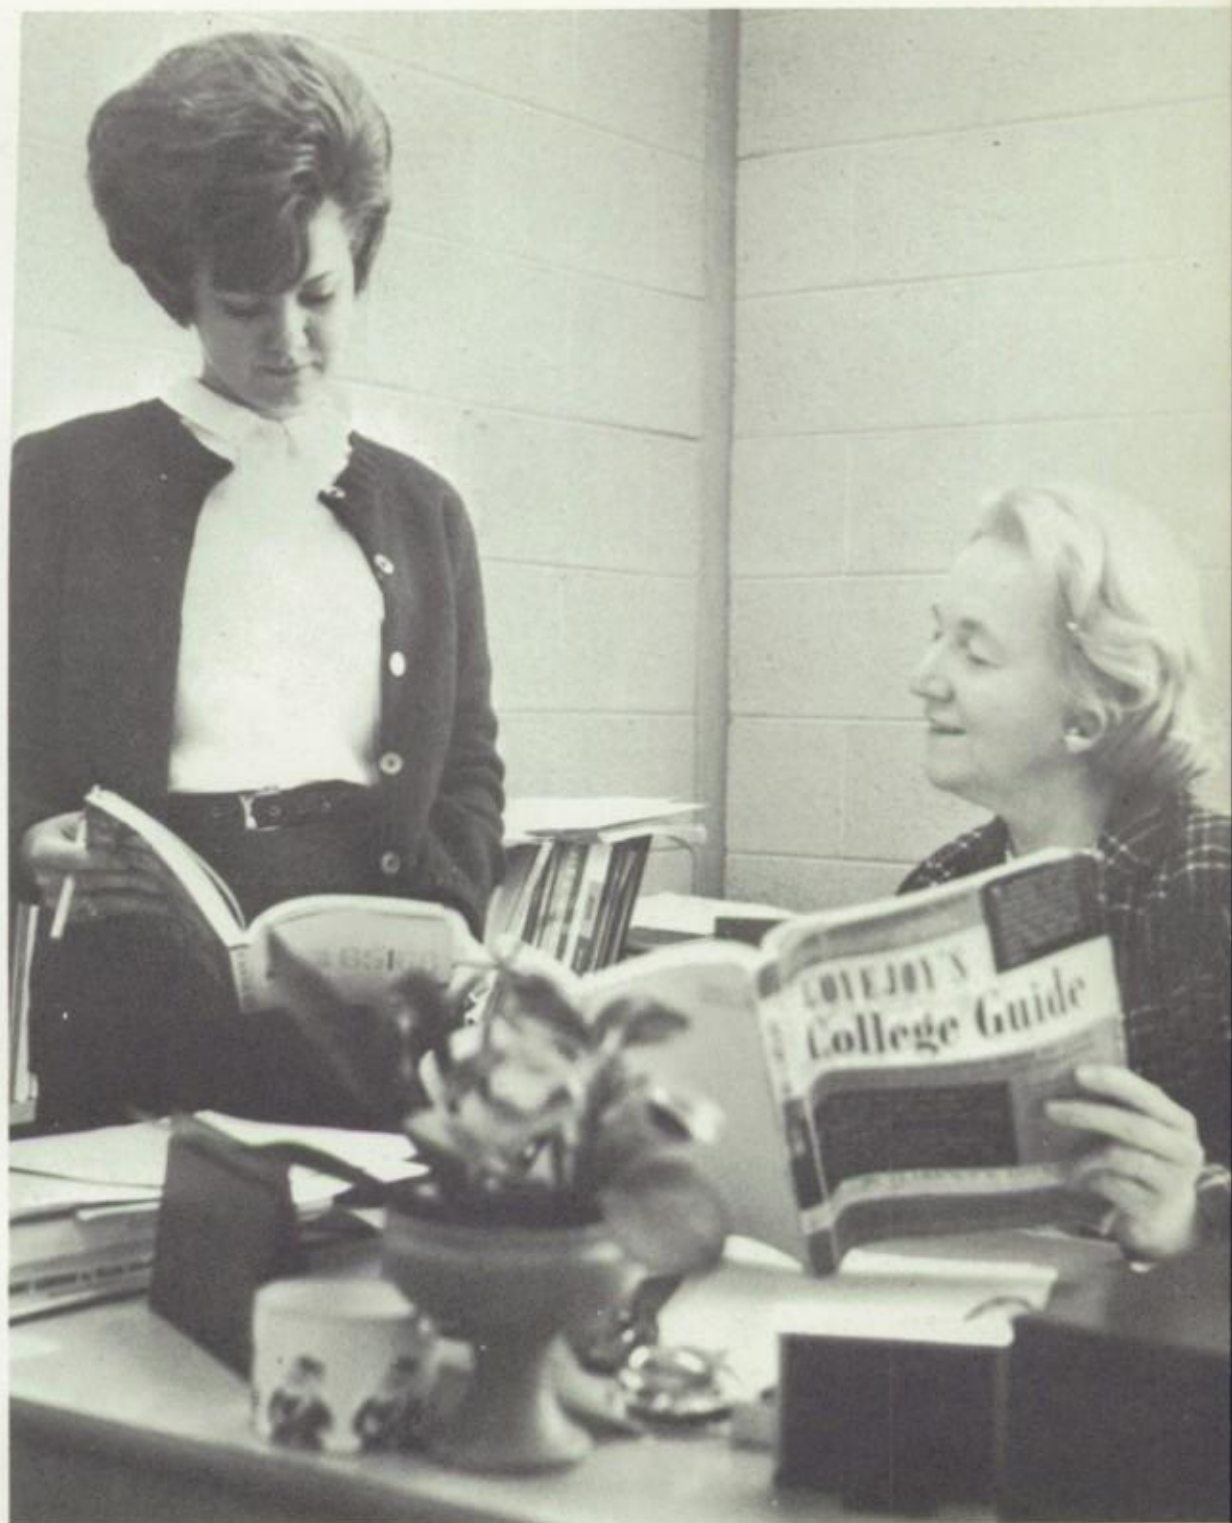

Although they are always busy with stacks of paper work, the guidance counselors will help any student find a solution to his problems. If information is needed about future education, scholarships, or tests, our guidance counselors will find it.

Catalogues and bulletins fill guidance office shelves.

Mrs. Ward adds new bulletins to the shelves.

When Carolyn Saul wanted college information she went to Mrs. Ward and found it.

Mr. Bishop explains to an interested student the many career fields in the Red Cross.

STAFFS KEEP P. H. GOING

1. Cafeteria workers prepare lunch for Patrick Henry and satellite schools. These lunches are carefully planned to provide students with a balanced diet. 2. Mr. Grubbs, night supervisor, is seldom seen by students. 3. Reams of paper thrown away by students and teachers fill trash cans like this. 4. Another scene of the busy cafeteria workers. Mrs. Moses is in charge of the cafeteria. 5. Mamie Lee dusts and polishes desks in all buildings. 6. Mr. Holden, well-known day supervisor, fills the vending machine in the gym lobby.

MEET OUR PARENTS

Fortunately for our school, our parents serve in many ways. Most of this work is co-ordinated through the P. T. A. When the S. C. A. Convention was held this fall, parents housed 600 visiting students. Our clinic is manned each day by a parent. Providing transportation for school groups is a major contribution of the parents. Our parents deserve our deepest gratitude for their many services to Patrick Henry.

Dr. Evelyn Wade checks records in the clinic.

Mr. Pitzer is welcomed back to Patrick Henry by Mr. Jack Butler, president of the PTA.

Variety could well be the theme of the English Department. Four levels of each required English class plus electives in World Literature, Creative Writing, Journalism, and Grammar are offered. A special grouping for able students, English E, proved to be challenging to both teachers and students.

Reading improvement has been stressed in all classes. The English teachers met early in the year with Mrs. Bowen in a work-shop atmosphere to learn how to lead students into worth-while reading situations.

Many students chose to take the non-credit Reading course, which may be remedial or developmental, according to the needs of the student.

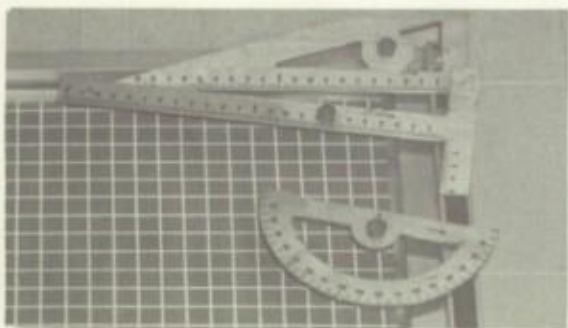

1. Phil Persinger and Mike Custer concentrate on an essay assigned by Mrs. Tice. 2. Journalism students Toby Blank, Jan Deyerle, Susan Lex, David Nash, Ellen Hancock, Judy Lancaster and Nancy West write, edit, cut, paste — all under Mrs. Wood's careful supervision. 3. Brenda Dehart chooses a skill builder from the selection in one of the reading laboratories. 4. David Whitenack, Chan Inge, Glenn Oakey, Mike McClure and Carl Vance work to remedy deficiencies and to develop new skills using study plans based on their individual needs. Mrs. Bowen teaches Reading six periods each day, yet there is an ever-growing list of students who ask for this course.

The hope of pursuing a career in math is an ambition of many students. Choice of this field as a life's work must be built on diligence and study in high school. The main objective of the math teachers is to help the students to think for themselves.

Courses that are offered range from Basic Math to the advanced study of Trigonometry and Calculus. Basic Math offers a background for further work in calculating and business, while Algebra and Geometry courses provide experience in exactness.

These varied areas of study not only build the thinking power of the individual but make up the Mathematics Department in our school today.

SCIENCE—UP TO DATE

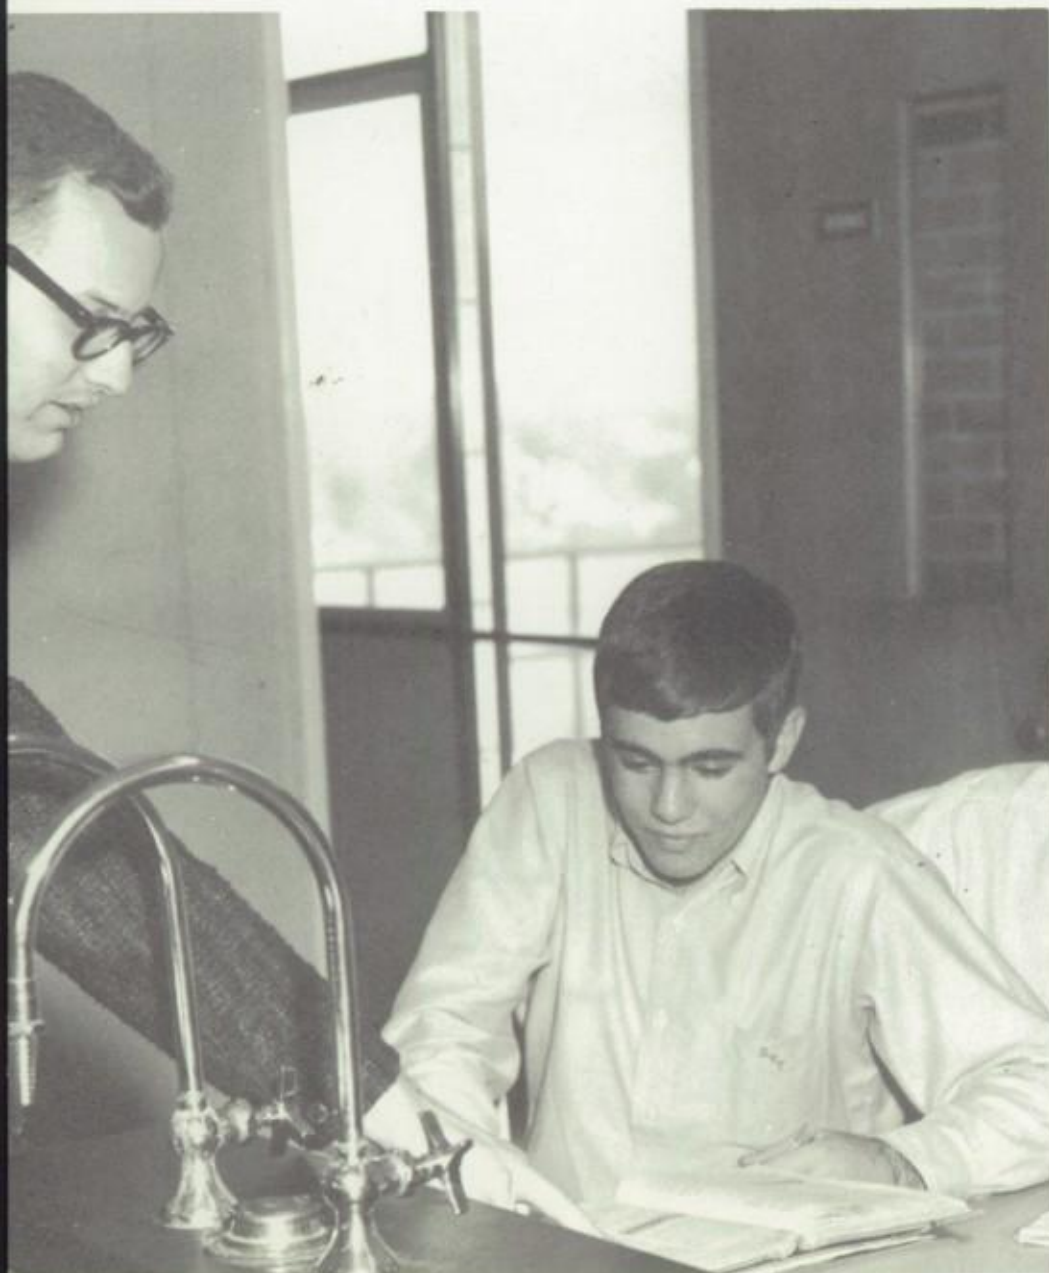

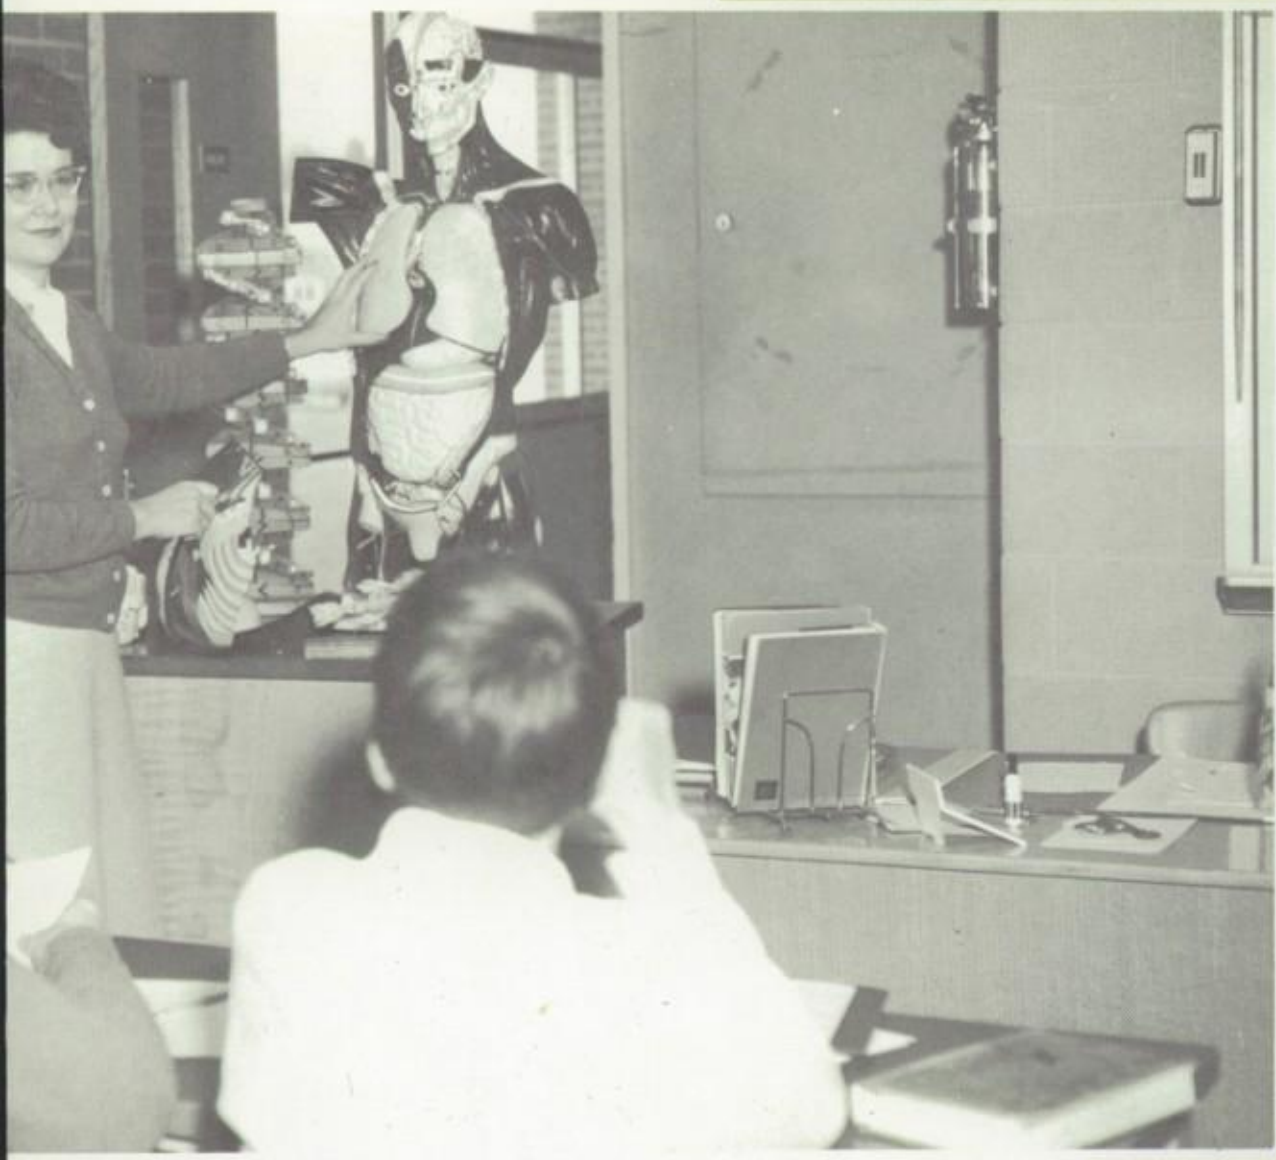

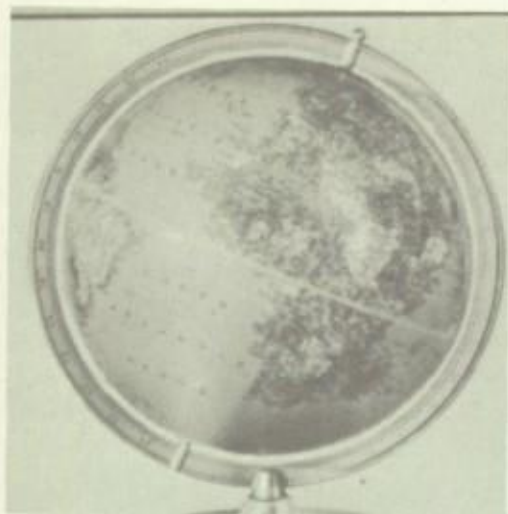

Arousing curiosity and impressing students with the importance of the scientific method is a major goal of the Science Department.

Although new text books are being used this year in many classes, the teachers bring in much extra material to keep up with new scientific discoveries.

Good citizenship and the understanding of man's attempt to govern himself are the aims of the History Department.

In American History classes students learn our system of government and why our country is what it is today . . . Current events and the study of Communism are stressed in the Government classes.

For History enthusiasts there are contemporary history courses. World History and Geography complete the curriculum of the History Department.

Judith Wolfenden points out to her students places of interest on a map of Spain.

The many students who are enrolling in one or more of the four foreign languages taught at Patrick Henry are causing the Language Department to continually enlarge its curriculum.

Offering four years of Latin, the Latin teachers strive to make each student aware of the importance of the Latin language today, as a basis for further study in other foreign languages, and as a path for greater understanding of the ancient Italian and Roman literature.

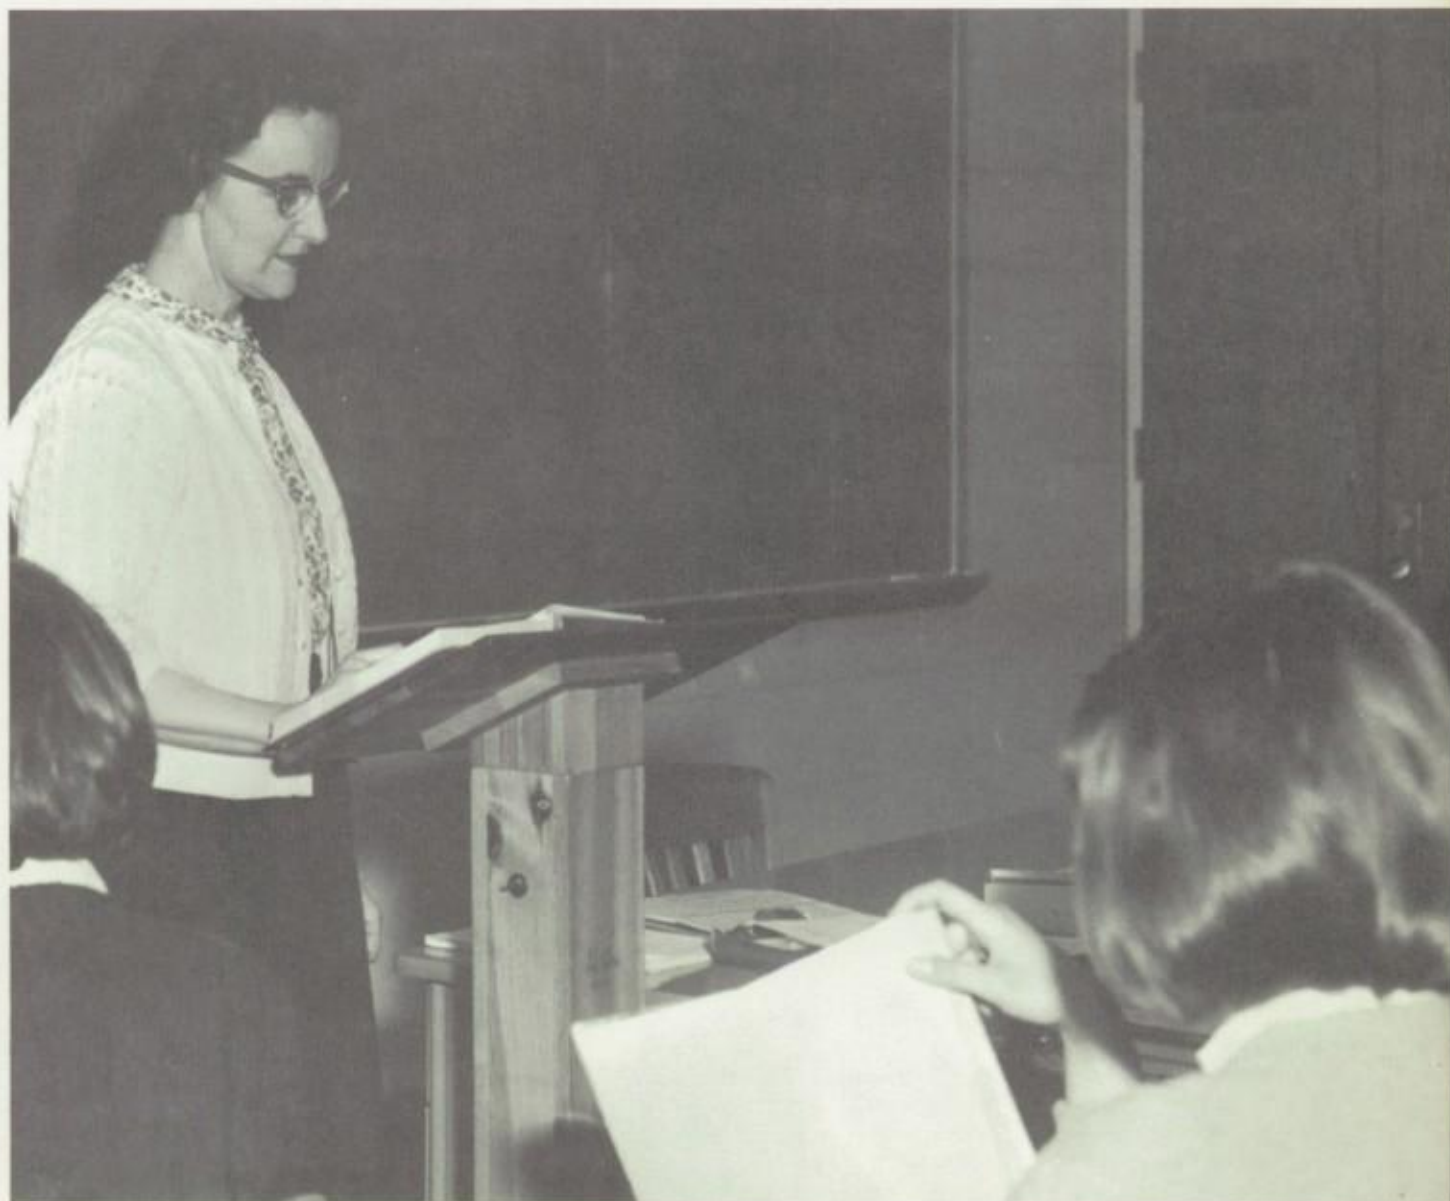

Four years of Russian are now offered as a result of the growing demand for this language. Russian students, besides learning the language, are taught to understand the Russian government and way of life.

The French and Spanish teachers develop in the students an awareness of the language and an ability to comprehend and speak it.

fine arts

The Fine Arts Department encourages talent in both fine and applied arts. An awareness of color, line, balance, texture, rhythm, harmony, counterpoint — whether the terms be applied to art, music, drama, wood-working, or mechanical drawing — is urged upon the student. The arts are taught as a basis for future training and as a source of personal satisfaction for the student.

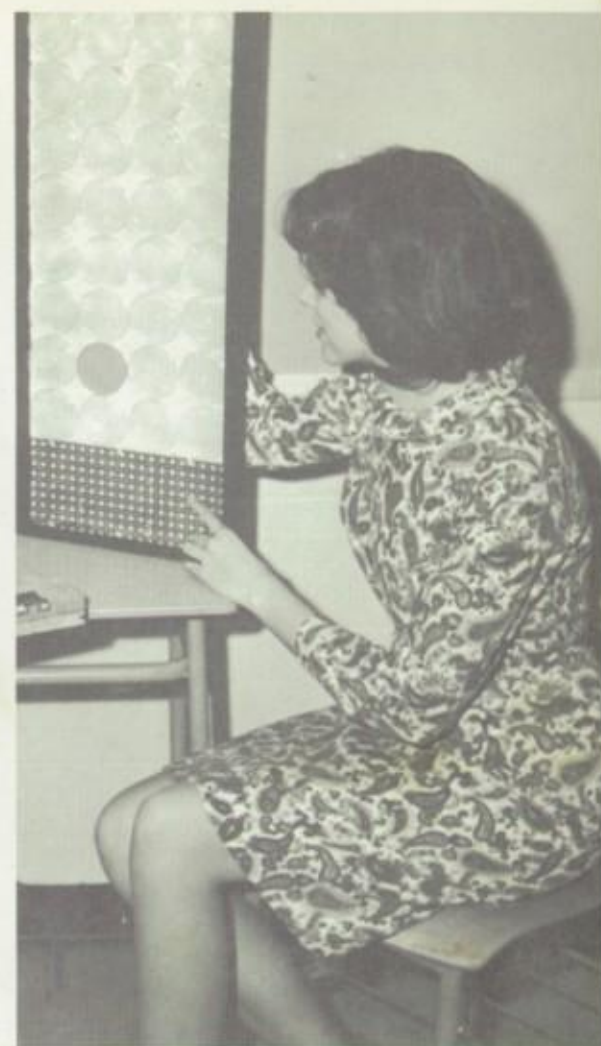

Major efforts of this Department include an annual performance of Handel's Messiah, the Spring Serata, art exhibits in all the halls, and several concerts by the band and choir.

Patrick Henry is a more colorful and interesting school because of the efforts of the students who work in this Department. They can be found on the staff of every school publication, in the Pep, Dance, and Marching Bands, in stage crews, summer theatre, and in the groups who repair much of the school equipment.

HOMEMAKING

Home Economics offers students the opportunity of learning to be intelligent homemakers and consumers. This year, for the second time, there was a Boys' Home Economics Class. Also, there was a special class for senior girls in which they learned home and family business management, preparation of a few simple foods, and selection of clothing. In other home economics courses, students gained knowledge and skill in home management, cooking, and sewing.

Business Education offers courses to meet the needs of both business and academic students, who improve their skills by working as office and teacher assistants within the school. Typing is popular with college-bound students; shorthand, bookkeeping and clerical practice are favorites with business majors.

Distributive Education provides basic instruction in marketing, merchandising and management for either full-time employment in the field of distribution or for continuing advanced training in business administration, marketing and distribution. A minimum of 15 hours per week in an approved training station to gain practical experience is required.

In addition to their usual tasks, the Librarians assumed a new project. Loose leaf notebooks were compiled with information on modern authors. The files of materials relating to career fields have been increased this year.

Directed by Miss Lemon and Mrs. McNeace, the library is a helpful place for student researchers. No matter what the assignment, information can usually be found in our library.

The students at Patrick Henry strive for a sound mind and a sound body. The Physical Education Department offers physical training, driver's education, and health. Students take physical fitness tests at the beginning and end of each year, with hope there will be improvement in the spring test. More than twenty sports are offered in gym class. Included in these are touch football, fieldball, softball, volleyball, soccer, wrestling, body mechanics, archery, bowling, and track, and field.

A gym show takes place each year to raise money for new equipment. All classes participate in this and demonstrate aspects of the course. Physical Education classes are work, but they are fun and develop a good competitive spirit among the students.

1. Wrestling is a major part of freshman boys' gym class. 2. Jack Ross demonstrates his skill on the rings. 3. Co-recreational activities are scheduled regularly. 4. Mrs. Patsel's sixth period gym class practices archery. 5. Kenny Henley builds arm strength climbing the ropes. 6. Susan Lex and Judy Lancaster demonstrate golf swings. 7. Gayle Hobson, Janice Horner, Jan Deyerle, and Sara Hatcher get ready for a Swedish fall — and hold the final position.

ATHLETICS

CHEERLEADERS

Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders led the student body in enthusiastic cheers at all Patrick Henry football and basketball games and helped to arouse school spirit in all students.

The Varsity Cheerleaders began practicing in July. They learned new cheers and worked on old ones. During the year, the cheerleaders, with the help of Mrs. Gravely, planned pep assemblies, painted signs, sold tickets and made announcements about coming sports events. In November the Varsity Cheerleaders participated in an area cheer rally at Roanoke Catholic High School.

Valinda Woods served as head Varsity Cheerleader; Carol Grasty was executive council representative. Cindy Light, small daughter of Coach Howard Light, was the faithful and peppy mascot. She attended practice sessions and worked beside the student cheerleaders at home games.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were sponsored by Mrs. Spencer and headed by Beverly Burrows.

PATRIOTS' RECORD BEST YET

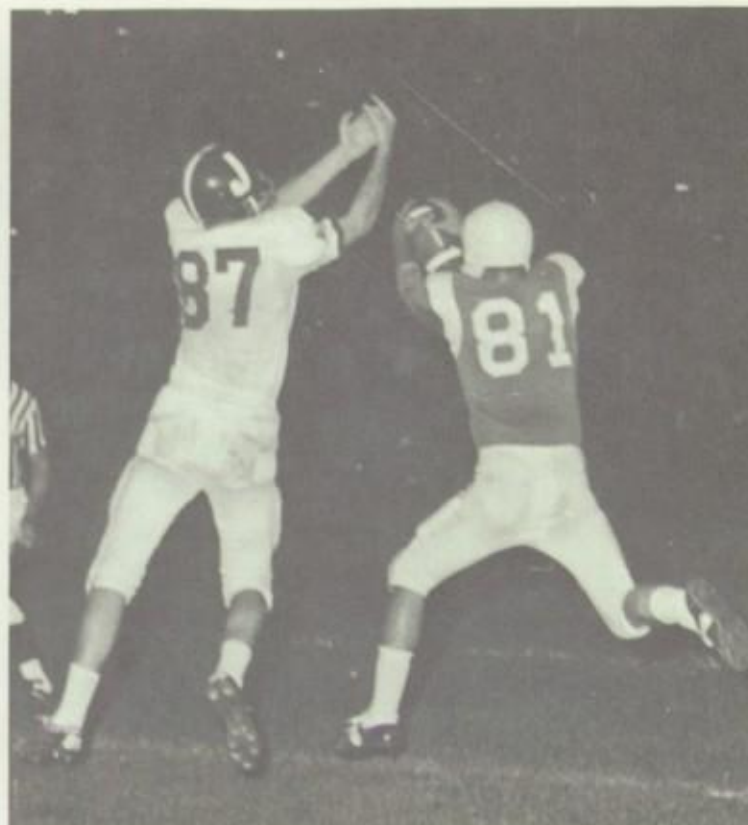

The Patrick Henry football team ended the 1965 season with second place in the Western District and the school scoring record of 38 points gained in 7 wins, 1 loss, and 2 ties. Coach Light called this the finest team and the best group of seniors he had ever coached. The team was a strong contender to be rated as best in the state.

The Patriots opened with a smarting 13-6 defeat at the hands of defending state champions, Andrew Lewis. Only an intercepted pass in the end zone in the closing minutes of the contest saved this game for the Wolverines. The Patriots' first win, 18-0, the following week against Jefferson was highlighted by Bob Slaughter's 101 yard return of a pass interception. The next effort was one of the team's finest, but in spite of the Patriots' threats to score on numerous occasions, the game ended in a scoreless tie with high-ranking Lane of Charlottesville.

Victories over Fleming and Grundy followed in the next two weeks. The margin over Grundy was secured when linebacker Larry Ronk raced 31 yards on a blocked punt. The team returned home to take on the state's eighth-ranked team, the Richlands Blue Tornadoes, in a hard-fought 13-7 win for the Patriots.

It was at this point that PH reached its peak; the greatest victory of the season—a 27-13 win over George Washington of Danville came the following week. This brought a showdown with E. C. Glass for the district crown. Unfortunately, a muddy field and a fumble after crossing the goal line which was ruled "no touchdown" prohibited the Patriots from salvaging anything but a 0-0 tie.

The season concluded with a 27-6 romp over Northside and a resounding 38-0 victory over Patrick Henry of Ashland.

Fullback Mike Long scampers off tackle for 48 yards.

Bob Slaughter snares pass and races 101 yards.

The Patriot Junior Varsity and Freshman football squads were moderately successful this year. The Jayvees posted a 3-2-1 record and the Freshmen compiled a 5-1-0 mark. Neither team was able to meet with the success of those of the preceding year but both showed a lot of promise.

The Jayvees opened their season by dropping a 19-0 decision to G. W. of Danville; then went on to trounce Jefferson 39-14. Halfback Gary Powers scored three touchdowns, and accounted for two more in the 28-0 victory over Floyd County High Jayvees. E. C. Glass was held to a scoreless tie when a fourth quarter drive by the Patriots was halted on the three yard line. The Jayvees gained their final win at home by mauling Northside 19-0. Richard Forth scored twice in this game. The season ended in a 7-0 loss to Fleming.

The Freshmen opened the season with two wins — Danville 7-0 and E. C. Glass 7-6. The Frosh looked good defensively in both games but were unable to muster any offensive punch. The following week, however, the Patriots scored a 32-6 rout over Andrew Lewis. The Freshmen suffered their first and only defeat, 6-0, from Jefferson, then concluded their schedule by defeating both Fleming and Glenvar 6-0.

In addition to its many achievements as a football team, Patrick Henry had its share of individual commendations. Three outstanding linemen were placed on the first team All-Western District squad, center Larry Ronk, tackle Bill Churchill, and end Bob Slaughter. All three played key roles in Patrick Henry's most successful football season. Also mentioned in the voting were Juniors Harry Norris, guard, and Wayne Dodson, quarterback; Seniors Mike Long, fullback, guard Randy Moore, and halfback Ronnie Cubitt. This team was chosen by the vote of district coaches — proof that they had high regard for the 1965 Patriot team.

The City-County coaches placed three Patriots on the All-City-County first team. Seniors Bob Slaughter and Bill Churchill were once again given recognition and Senior fullback Mike Long joined them on this team. Seniors Larry Ronk and Randy Moore made the second team at City-County level, while quarterback Wayne Dodson was a third team selection.

Patrick Henry's football stars were given special praise by individual coaches, broadcasters and sports writers. Among the comments were those of a Lane High School broadcaster who said that Patriot end Bob Slaughter was the finest that he had seen in a long time. Coach Vince Bradford of E. C. Glass, appearing on a television program just before the district championship game with PH, said he thought end Bob Slaughter would be a major threat to the Glass defense. Throughout the season sports writers never failed to laud the play of Patriot fullback Mike Long and give high praise to tackle Bill Churchill and center Larry Ronk.

The highest praise a football player can receive is from his own coach. Senior guard Randy Moore was called the greatest lineman that Patrick Henry has ever had and was given the award as the outstanding lineman of the year by Coach Howard Light. Ronnie Cubitt was the recipient of the outstanding back award.

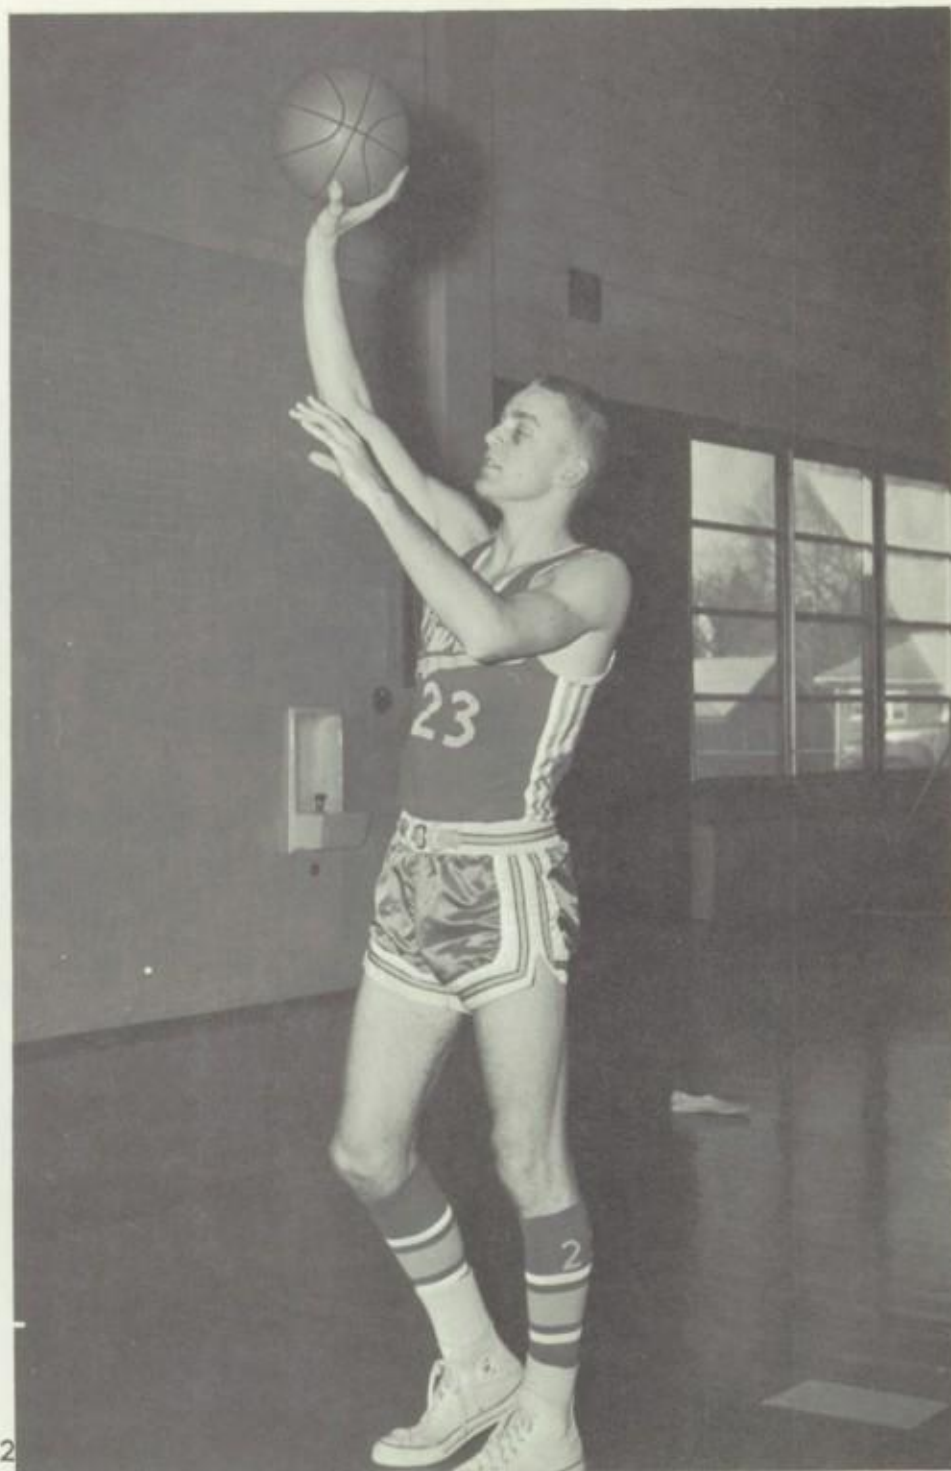

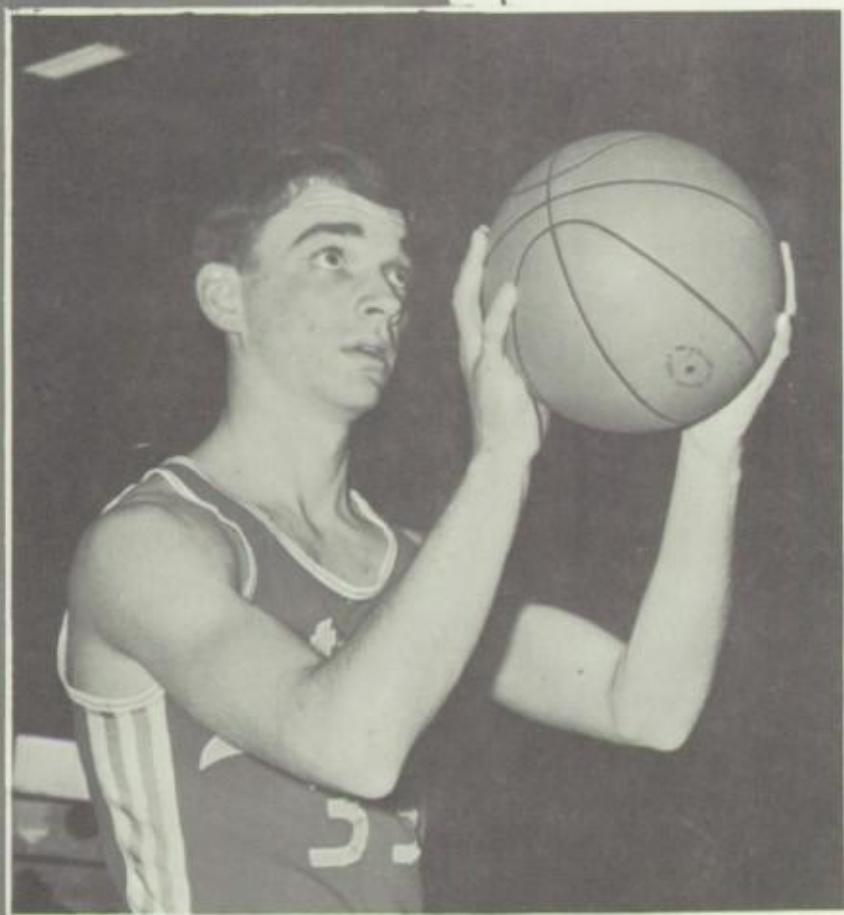

Defensive halfback Bob Slaughter breaks up pass play in 27-6 Northside rout.

ATHLETIC HONORS

The entire basketball team was honored for their balanced playing. Coaches Mosser and Johnson stated that every player should be considered outstanding. 1. Noble Marshall and 2. Jack Burrows were named to the All-District Team. 3. Mr. Lucas congratulates Randy Moore on being named lineman of the year by the coaches. 4. Bob Slaughter, outstanding player of the year, receives his third letter in football honor assembly.

ONLY ONE GAME SHORT!!!

Coach Len Mosser and Assistant Larry Johnson produced one of the nations finest high school basketball teams. Ranked 17th in the nation prior to their opening contest, the Patriots ended their regular schedule with a 16-1 record, first place in Western District Group 1-A, and top seed in the state tournament. Their only defeat came at the hands of Martinsville, a 1-B team which won state-wide recognition before the season ended.

A 70-58 victory over Martinsville was the season's opener, followed by a close 70-65 win at Andrew Lewis. Resounding victories over Danville 81-43 and Fleming 96-64 gave the team first-rank by the Richmond Times Dispatch. The state's biggest upset came the day after the release of the rankings as the "Big Purple" dropped a 68-65 decision at Martinsville. Patriot fans had no time for tears as the Patriots led the Western District after drubbing powerful E. C. Glass 72-44. Two more district wins at Halifax 82-58 and Jefferson 76-58 moved the Patriots from third to second place in the state rank. Victories over William Byrd 97-59 and Fleming 67-49 preceded an all-important trip to the East Coast.

Patrick Henry established itself as a bona fide contender for state honors with a 90-45 lashing of Warwick. Their performance was enough for Newport News writers to say, "—this is the team to beat in the state tournament." Snow cancelled the game with Hampton, so the Patriots returned to trounce Danville 62-58, Byrd 87-56, and Andrew Lewis 74-63.

The big game of the season came against Glass at Lynchburg. Down by as many as eleven points, the Patriots fought to a 46-44 victory. P.H. closed its regular season and clinched the district title with wins over Halifax 103-46 and Jefferson 98-62.

Victories over Jefferson 61-47 and Glass 62-59 in the District Tournament earned top-seeding for the Patriots in the State Tournament. They advanced with wins over W. T. Woodson 63-55 and host Lane of Charlottesville 62-54.

Patrick Henry's dream of a state title fell one game short of becoming a reality as the Patriots bowed to towering Washington-Lee of Arlington 54-39 in the finals. It was not too fitting that the team's worst game in four years came as the final one, but this was what it took to defeat the state's finest basketball team.

WRESTLERS SET RECORD

1. Juddy Fant loads the gear for the trip to Regional Tournament where 2. Juddy Fant and Bob Crawford earned placings. 3. Gary Powers, PH, and Robert Sarver, Jefferson, were undefeated before this match.

The Patrick Henry Wrestling team completed its second winning season in five years with a 6-5-1 record. The team mark included a school record of 58 points against Amherst and two wins over William Fleming. Jack Ross, a junior, was undefeated in the 145-lb. division during the regular season. Others with outstanding records were junior Gary Powers at 6-1 whose loss was a 2-1 decision at the hands of undefeated Robert Sarver of Jefferson, 165-lb. Dee Copenhaver 7-2, 127-lb. Juddy Fant 9-3-1, 133-lb. Buddy Adams 7-5, and heavyweight Bobby Crawford 7-3-1.

The Patriots downed Fleming 31-19 and won 58-0 over Amherst. Powerful Hargrave Military brought the first defeat 26-25. Andrew Lewis and Jefferson handed the Patriots 30-16 and 27-22 setbacks and the team mark slipped below .500. Two big road wins, 22-22 tie with Danville, losses to Byrd 33-13 and Jefferson 29-17, a win over Fleming 31-17 and a victory over Covington brought the season to a close.

Eight wrestlers competed in the Western Regional Tournament. Juddy Fant placed third and Bob Crawford fourth in their divisions.

TRACK AND FIELD

Patrick Henry fielded three track teams during the season. The cross-country team finished their regular season with a 5-0 record and competed in the city-county and state meets. The indoor track team competed in the state meet. Prospects were good for the outdoor track and field team as spring training began under Coach Steve Baker.

The cross-country team, coached by Mr. Baker, posted a 5-0 record in season competition.

sports preview

Billy Nash, number-one member of the golf team.

The outlook for 1966 spring sports season at Patrick Henry was a little uncertain. Tennis and golf, two of the season's most successful teams last year, were hard hit by graduation, while the baseball team retained a fine nucleus to build on a poor showing of the previous year.

The state's top-ranked player, Jack Burrows, will be returning to the tennis team, along with another ranking player, David Turner.

Golf will find seniors Billy Nash, Jimmy Bowden and Dick Kessler leading this year's team.

Ten lettermen will spearhead the baseball team. David Ward, a contender for all-district honors; Bobby Blane and Bruce Mann, outstanding for the double-play; Bob Bushkar, city-county leading hitter last season; and Phil Bushkar will all be busy on the diamond. If Coach Lucas can come up with a balanced pitching staff, the baseball team will prove to be a real threat.

PH POWDER PUFFS SCORE AGAIN

Screams of excitement are heard echoing through the gym as the "Powder Puffs" of P.H. score again. Many girls were active in sports this year, and good sportsmanship was displayed in both defeat and victory.

The J.V. Volleyball Team were City Champs. The Varsity also enjoyed a fine season.

With the swirl of bright purple jumpers, the girls' basketball season started with a bang. Exceptional team effort and skill led them to hard fought victories.

Gymnastics played an important role this year as we were host for the state tournament. Tennis and softball teams were well represented with numerous wins.

Combining the will to win and fine team effort, P.H. was known for the fair play and enthusiasm of a fine group of girls.

1. The Gymnastic Team, coached by Mrs. Patsel, practices for the state meet. 2. Paula Partington backs up Shelley Habeck during a volleyball game. 3. ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

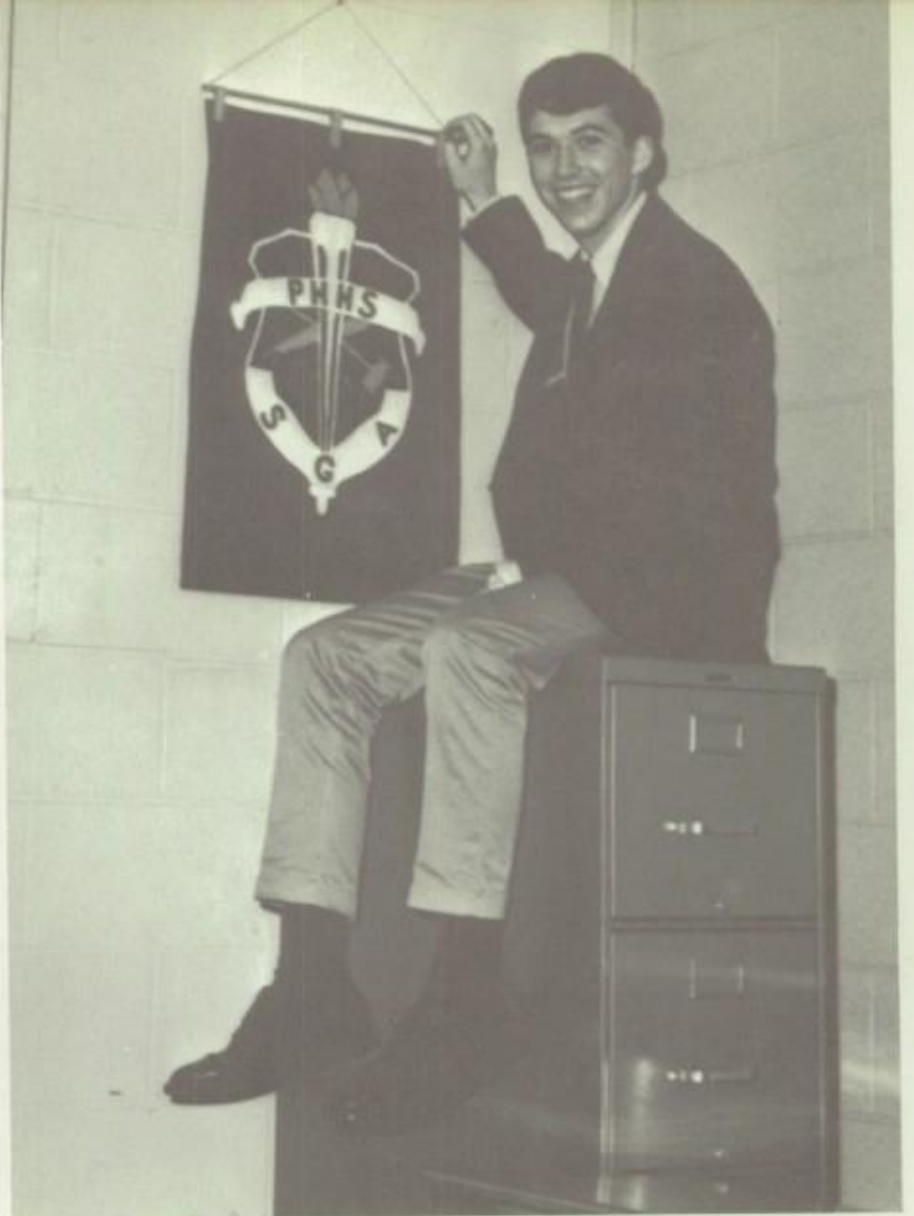

Martha Kennedy, the recording secretary, is busy putting some student government papers in the filing cabinet.

The student government at Patrick Henry, headed by the five officers and the Executive Council, is representative of all students through the homeroom representatives to the House of Burgesses.

The highlight of this year was the meeting of the Southern Association of Student Councils held at Patrick Henry in late October. Over five hundred students from twelve of fourteen southern states were housed, fed, transported, and entertained by P. H. students.

Liz Jennings, corresponding secretary, writes thank you notes to those who contributed to the success of the S. A. S. C.

As president of the student body, Buddy Kling attempts to adjust the Patrick Henry S. G. A. banner.

Phil Bushkar, S. G. A. treasurer, spends his time keeping an account of who has paid dues and who has not.

Mark Feldman, vice president, decides that checking homeroom lists for students who did not receive directories is not easy.

House of Burgesses members busily take notes so that they will be able to report efficiently to their homerooms.

House of Burgesses members were:
 B. Adams, B. Adams, J. Bays, T. Blank, P. Carter, B. Caudill, D. Coulter, P. Coulter, K. Crouch, B. Cundiff, G. Douglas, M. Falligant, P. Felton, D. Fisher, R. Forth, D. Fox, D. Gibbons, B. Gibson, E. Hancock, S. Hodges, P. Jarrett, D. Johnson, A. Kaplin, G. Kraige, M. Little, S. Long, H. Marshall, V. Mattox, R. Merritt, R. Mills, W. Nelms, L. Race, L. Reynolds, P. Richardson, C. Schneider, M. Sims, B. Staples, C. Sumner, C. Thurston, C. Tower, B. Tucker, B. West, N. West, J. Wilhelm, B. Wire, and C. Young.

Jim Elliot, Priscilla Fields, Lynn Andrews, and Terry Sue Martin are busy packing Christmas Dance decorations.

Buddy Kling presides over an early morning House of Burgesses meeting.

The three hall chairmen, Larry Davidson, Parsons; Bob Evans, Persinger; and George Yates, McQuilkin; discuss inter-hall rivalries.

CHANGE-OF-PACE ACTIVITIES

SPANISH CLUB HOLDS FIESTA

A pinata spilling its contents of candies and small gifts was the climax of the Christmas fiesta. Both the pinata and the fiesta gave Club members experience in the customs of Spanish speaking countries.

Foreign exchange students of the Roanoke City-County area were entertained at a spring meeting. Roos Delesie, Belgium; Dani Falcao, Brazil; Peter Neglen, Sweden; and Anne Humphrey, England, participated in an informal discussion with club members. This proved to be the most interesting meeting of the year as the foreign students gave generously of themselves in answering the many questions of the Patrick Henry students.

Officers were Paul Felton, President; Toby Blank, Vice President; Margot Walthall, Secretary; and Ann Gilmer, Treasurer. Miss Judy Wolfenden and Miss Velva Wood served as Advisors.

Anne Humphrey opens the discussion period.

Bob Bushkar and Jimmy Price check a modern Russian novel for program material.

The Russian League gives students an opportunity to extend their knowledge of Russia, its customs and peoples. Guest speakers included Mr. George Solonewitsch, a native Russian, and Miss Sandy Helms, a guide and translator for American teams and groups making tours in Russia. Miss Helms brought slides of the countryside and major cities of the USSR as illustrations of her travels.

Debates concerning Communism, its influences in America and Europe, and the changes brought about in countries which have become communistic are popular with the students.

Bob Bushkar, President; Jimmy Price, Vice President; Susan Richardson, Secretary; Paul Felton, Treasurer; and Mrs. Petersen, Advisor, have guided the Russian League.

LATIN CLUB

The Junior Classical League, known as the Latin Club, held meetings on the first Tuesday of each month. The officers Glenn Kraige, president; Jerry Carter, vice president; Diane Spicer, secretary; and Sarah McAfee, treasurer; planned programs for the purpose of acquainting the students with the Ancient Greek and Roman Culture.

Each Latin Class had a representative to the Latin Club. These representatives Bay Crawford, Johnny Bays, Broaddus Fitzpatrick, Becky Minor, Connie Carmack, Ellen Johnson, Ann Taylor, Ned Olinger, and Barbara Clement collected the Latin Club dues in their class and did any other necessary jobs which arose.

The year ended with the annual Latin Club Banquet to which members came dressed in the appropriate Roman clothing.

Three of the Latin Club officers discuss their plans for a future meeting.

Mrs. Bowles and Sarah McAfee check the treasurer's report.

Some of the Latin Club representatives make final plans for a program to be given at the next meeting.

Blair Fulton, Pres., and Lynn Andrews, V. Pres., plan a display.

Officers, Jean Bear, Jan and Jill Butler evaluate a project.

CULTURE OF FRANCE

Patrick Henry's French Club La Marianne, is considered by the large number of members to be a real asset to the department. The outstanding goal of La Marianne is to develop in the students an interest in the social life, educational system, and culture of the French. This is achieved through a variety of entertaining and informative programs presented at the monthly meetings. In addition to these meetings the French Club annually holds a Christmas party in December and a picnic at the end of the year.

The Class representatives to the French Club this year were Linda Hall, Mary Woods, Sharon Haislip, Peanut Willis, Carol DeVaughn, Carol Grasty, Jill Butler, Blair Fulton, Lew Reynolds, Debbie Schwartz, Allison Smithey, Diane Curd, Emily Kern, and Martha Kennedy.

Each French class has a class member to represent them in French Club.

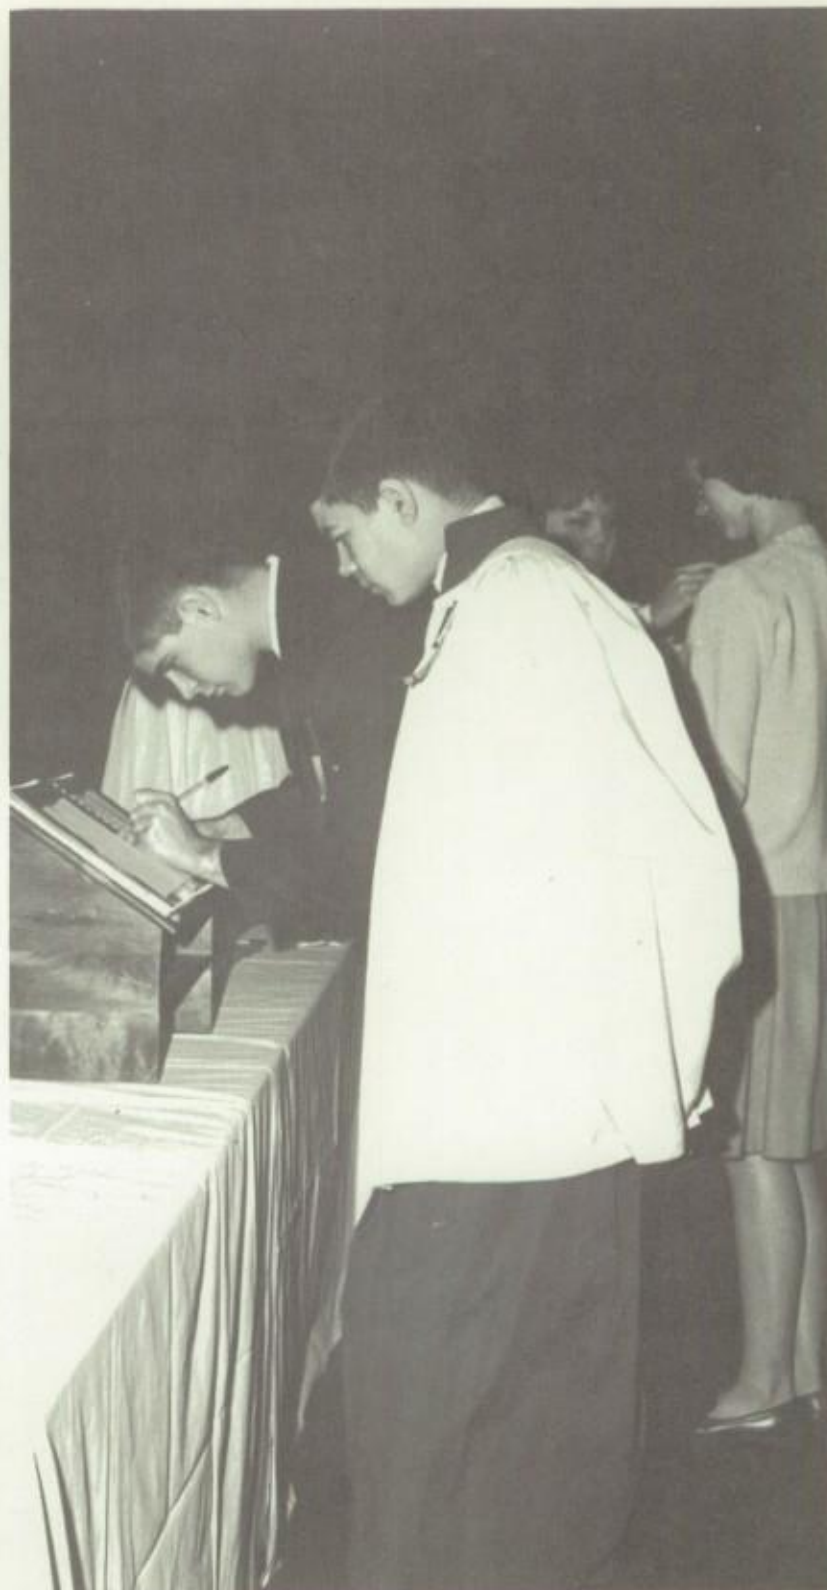

Martha Mundy and Anne Sacks check reports for the tutoring committee.

FOUR GOALS OF NHS

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service, goals of the National Honor Society, are all upheld by the Patrick Henry Chapter. To encourage stronger character and to promote an awareness of honor, the NHS sponsored an assembly in January. Four guest speakers including a lawyer, a judge, a psychiatrist, and a rabbi, discussed the pre-exam pressures on students.

Serving the school in many ways, the NHS directed a tutoring service and a book sales booth. Profits from the book sales were used to help sponsor the Academic Recognition Banquet in May and contributed to the John F. Kennedy Scholarship fund. At the annual tapping assembly on February 24, seniors and juniors who had proven their qualifications were inducted into the society. To them was given not only a high honor but a responsibility to uphold the four goals of the National Honor Society.

The officers were Bill Waldrop, President; Betty Wallenborn, Vice-President; Kathleen Grady, Secretary; and Mary Nininger, Treasurer. Miss Shanks was the sponsor.

New members were welcomed into the society at the Induction Ceremony.

Dr. James Roy Smith was guest speaker at the assembly.

Officers of Quill and Scroll Bill Waldrop, President; Nancy Robertson, Vice President; Whitney Hanes, Secretary; and Barbara Bishop, Treasurer; make arrangements for the spring banquet.

Shannon Lee and Carol DeV Vaughn admire the green velvet Quill and Scroll banner.

Susan Dern welcomes new members Laura Keys and Drew Gibbons.

JOURNALISTS HONORED

An outstanding contribution to a school publication and a high scholastic average will earn a student membership in the Quill and Scroll International Honor Society.

The aims of good journalism: truth, learning, leadership, loyalty, initiative, integrity, judgment, and friendship are encouraged by this Society.

All of the publications at Patrick Henry: Orator, La Liberté, The Statesman, Quill, and Patriot, were well represented in the membership. Quill and Scroll banquets were held in November and April.

Other members of the staff are Ginny Kurshan, Clyda Anderson and Mike Martin.

If you happened to walk by McQuilkin 204 during sixth period, you found it buzzing with activity of all kinds, especially before a deadline. The Art Staff might have been copying layouts frantically or changing a layout that just wouldn't fit the pictures. The Literary Staff might have been writing copy or racking their brains for a clever caption. Even in this scene of confusion, the deadlines were being met though much of this work was completed after school hours.

Butch Scott, the photographer, kept students on guard for the time he would sneak by and catch them at an odd moment. Bill Waldrop, Editor, and Betsy Adams, Art Editor, kept the staff moving until the deadlines were met.

The PATRIOT, issued on Senior Day this year, is the result of long and tedious, but enjoyable, working hours.

Seventeen issues of the newspaper are published by THE STATESMAN staff with the help of Mrs. Virginia Wood. Read by one thousand Patrick Henry subscribers, the six page newspaper contains school news, editorials, alumni news, and candid features. Newspapers are exchanged with fourteen area schools and two out-of-state schools. Each member of the staff receives training in practical journalism by writing copy, editing, composing headlines, proof-reading and photography.

In the modest opinion of its staff, Quill is a fantastically great magazine. Most of the judges at the publication competitions think so, too, for Quill always wins the very highest awards for excellence.

Quill, which represents the outstanding literary achievements of Patrick Henry students, is published annually. All members of the staff spend a year of apprenticeship in Creative Writing polishing their immortal prose and poetry and developing their critical abilities.

La Liberté

Patrick Henry has a new La Liberté. The format was changed from a newspaper to an annual magazine.

Nancy Robertson, editor; Janice Horner and Blair Fulton, assistant editors; David Dull, business manager; Claudine Sumner, Barbara Pitman and Jan Deyerle, illustrators; and staff members Jan Butler, Peter Clore, Laura Ann Leavitt, Shannon Lee and Sara Alden Willis worked many hours to produce this outstanding publication.

HI-Y SERVES COMMUNITY

The Hi-Y is one of the oldest and most beneficial clubs at Patrick Henry. Composed of boys of outstanding character and high ideals, the organization renders service to the school and community. Their first project was delivering posters for the Sandlot Benefit football game. At Christmas the Hi-Y distributed the baskets of food and clothes which had been collected by the school for needy families. As a service to the school, members of the Hi-Y took the responsibility for displaying the school flag.

In April, Mike Kelley and Jim Winders attended the Model General Assembly in Richmond. Each Hi-Y organization in the state sent a Junior and Senior as representative to the mock assembly which carried on business in the manner of the Virginia General Assembly.

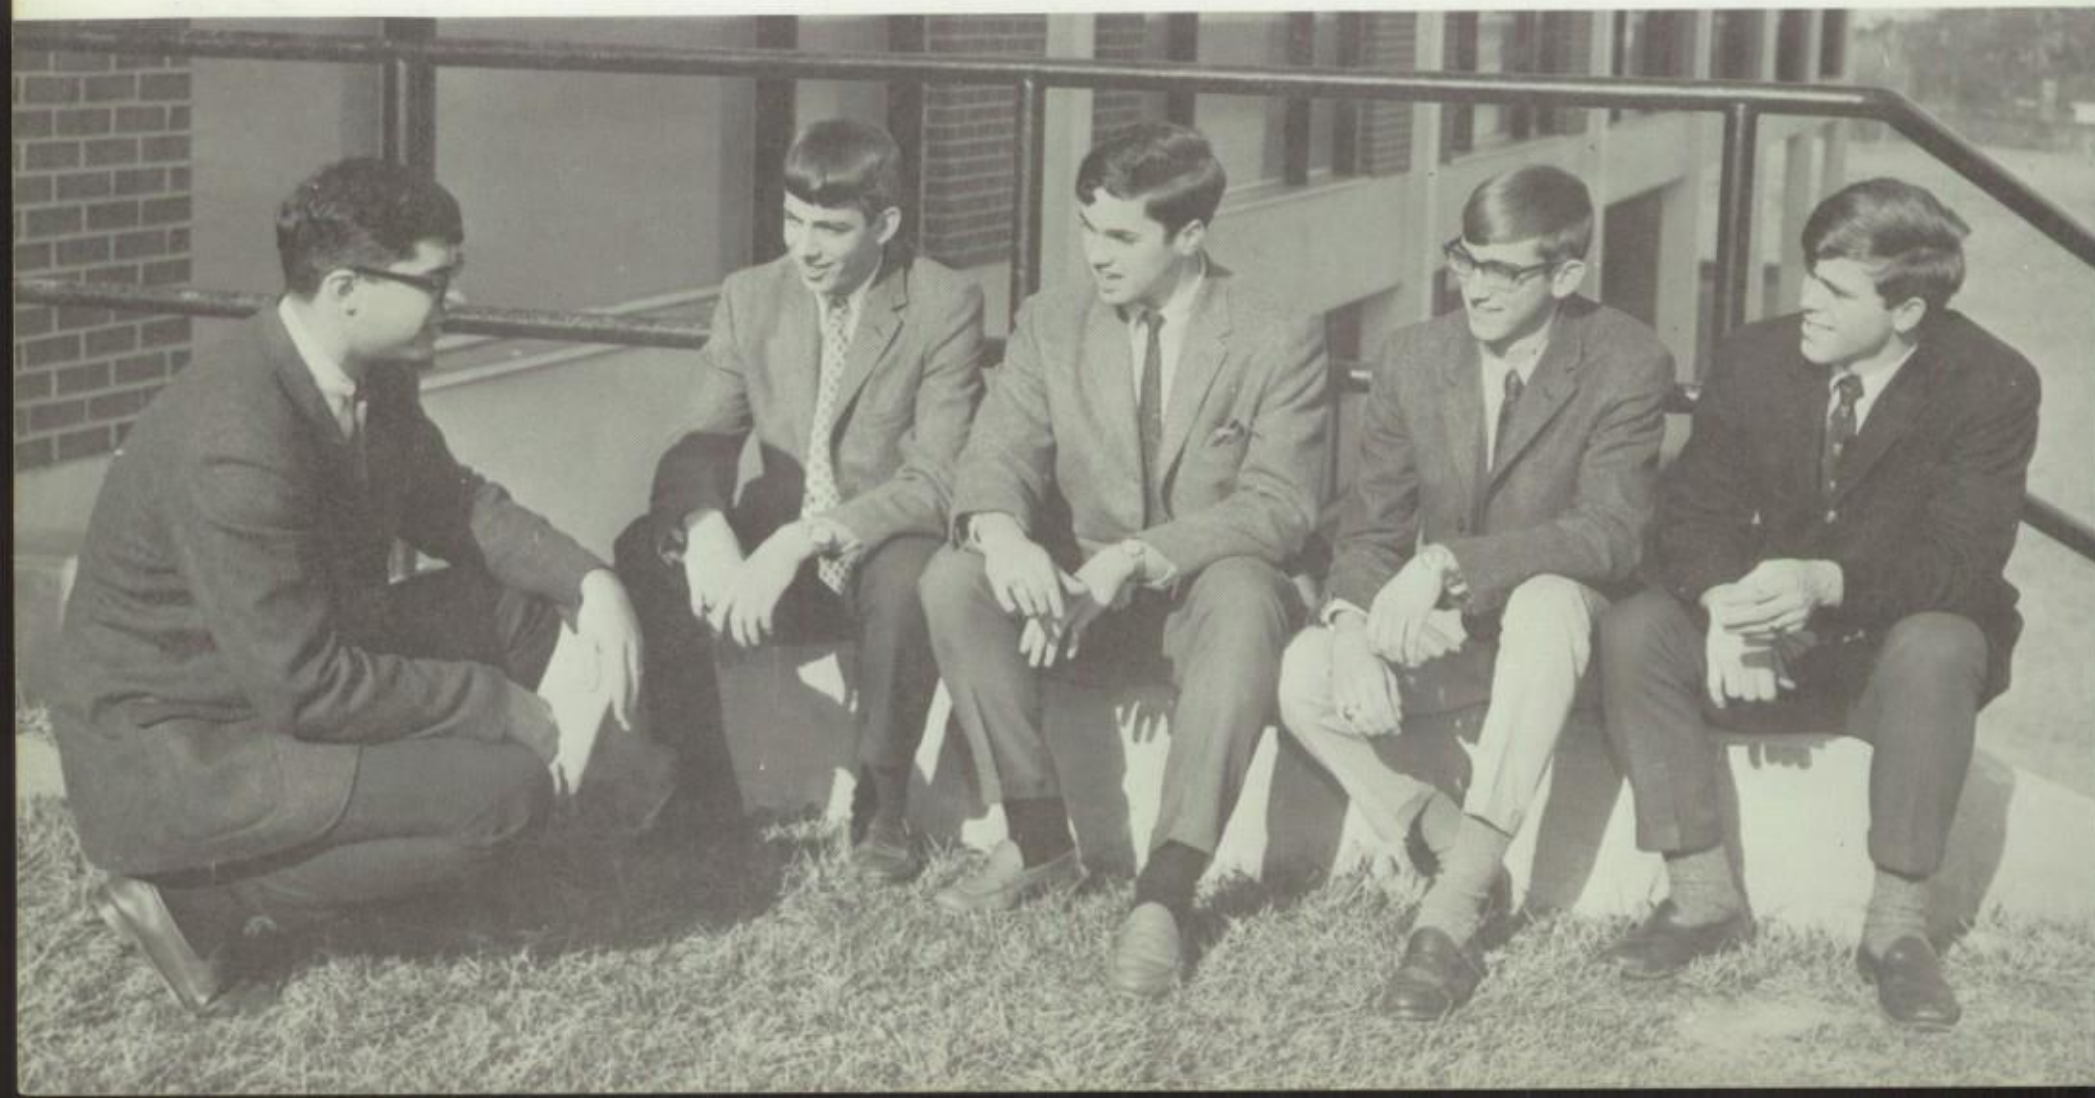

Brotherhood, service, and development of strong religious convictions are the purposes of the Hi-Y.

The school flag is raised by the Hi-Y.

The 1965-66 Hi-Y officers, President Mike Kelley, Vice-President Dick Kesler, Secretary Jimmy Winders, Treasurer Preston Young, and chaplain Pat Bergeron plan the distribution of almost fifty Christmas baskets to needy families.

Y-TEENS AID IN SCHOOL AND AT HOME

The Y-Teen officers for this year were: Judy Yancey, President; Phyllis Young, Vice President; Toby Blank, Secretary; Susan Dern, Treasurer; Myrna Moses, Program Chairman; and Sterling Kephart, I.C.C. Representative.

The Y-Teens of Patrick Henry, members of the national Y.W.C.A., promote maturity of the individual, fellowship, and love of God. Opportunities for strong friendships are made possible through their activities with other Roanoke Y-Teens.

The members for 1965-1966 are: B. Bailey, B. Ballowe, M. Beyer, S. Beyer, T. Blank, L. Bowen, B. Bowling, M. Brammer, C. Brown, J. Carper, T. Contes, L. Cory, S. Crawford, N. Cundiff, D. Dern, S. FUTURE TEACHERS

Providing early training and promoting an interest in teaching are the goals of the Future Teachers of America. This year the group worked in many activities to attain their goals.

One day a week, on study hall time, the members went to Raleigh Court Elementary School as teacher assistants. On Thursday afternoons they were at West End Elementary School with activities planned to entertain the students. Patrick Henry's faculty was honored with a tea given during National Education Week.

Ann Peterson was elected as citywide president of the F.T.A. and, with Bonnie Bowers and Barbara Hilts, served as Patrick Henry's representatives to the State F.T.A. convention in Richmond, December 10 and 11.

Officers were Ann Peterson, President; Barbara Hilts, Vice President; Susan Carter, Secretary; Pam Nuckols, Treasurer; and Bonnie Bowers, Reporter.

F.T.A. members entertain the elementary students of West End School.

Phyllis Richardson, President, does last minute chores.

The Future Homemakers of America is a nation-wide organization whose objective is to develop maturity of the individual and an appreciation for a well-cared for home. Through the club, girls are prepared for their future as a member of the community. This year's members are: Elizabeth Arrington, Kathy Arrington, Betty Bailey, Marie Beyer, Susan Beyer, Jenny Heck, Sally Jacoby, Gaye Keaton, Sydney Lowe, Janis Macy, LeNeta Maddock, Sandra Reese, Phyllis Richardson, Suzanne Riley, Lynn Sherard, Lawanda Simpson, Kathy Spear, Sue Spear, Sandy Teveri, Sandra Turner, Cheryl Balen, Janis Wilbur.

FHA members listen intently to minutes of a previous meeting.

Officers of the Red Cross and their sponsor, Mrs. Tice, discuss plans for their various projects.

RED CROSS HELPS OTHERS

The Red Cross, a very beneficial and hardworking organization at Patrick Henry, has participated in and promoted many worthwhile activities. The annual Christmas party at the Veterans Hospital, the promotion of Blood Donor Day, and the encouraging of students to work as volunteers in the Red Cross Summer Program were among its most important activities.

Each homeroom at the beginning of the year selects a student to represent the homeroom at Red Cross meetings which are held once a month before school hours. These representatives also attend City-wide meetings.

Officers of the Red Cross this year were Mary Nininger, president; Linda Thacker, vice president; and Sterling Kephart, secretary. Mrs. Tice and Mrs. Drewry served as advisors.

Members of the Red Cross listen attentively at a regular early morning meeting.

YOU CAN SAY ANYTHING HERE

The officers of the Liberal Arts club look over magazines for interesting topics to discuss.

Liz Horner finds material for a Liberal Arts assembly.

Contrary to popular belief, the Liberal Arts club is not a club for geniuses or people who plan to attend liberal arts colleges. It is a club for people who enjoy interesting speakers and discussions of the controversial issues of our time.

Programs for this year have included speakers who have traveled all over the world and discussions on everything from Viet Nam to an honor system at Patrick Henry. In all the discussions and lectures, the motto of the club has remained, "You can say anything here."

Officers for 1965-66 were Janice Horner, President; Elizabeth Horner, Vice-President; Sterling Kephart, Secretary-Treasurer; and Paul Felton, Program Chairman. Mr. Porterfield served as sponsor.

Interesting programs are fun to plan.

COMEDY, TRAGEDY, MELODRAMA THE PLAY IS THE THING

Three major productions and a one-act play kept the Patrick Henry Players in a mad rush to learn lines and paint sets before curtain time. Students working on these plays earned points for membership in the National Thespian Society.

In November, Bell, Book and Candle, a comedy by John van Druten, was presented. This play centered on a young witch's problems with mortals.

Jean Anouilh's modern interpretation of Antigone was chosen for the winter play. This tragedy of a Greek princess dealt with the laws of God in conflict with those of man.

At the One-Act Play Festival, the Players presented The Fumed Oak, an unpleasant comedy in two scenes by Noel Coward.

Fine Arts and Drama cooperated on the fourth annual Spring Serata in May.

Acting awards were given and new Thespians were introduced at the Thespian banquet which marked the end of another year for the Patrick Henry Players.

Carole Thurston and Piwacket cast a spell.

PROMOTING DECA

The Distributive Education Clubs of America — DECA — identifies the program of youth activity relating to Distributive Education and is designed to develop future leaders in marketing and distribution.

As a professional project the club conducted a follow-up survey of DE students who had graduated from Patrick Henry.

An annual banquet for the students and employers was held in the spring.

THE BUSINESS WORLD

A better business education — a better business world. The Business Club started off with a "bang" this year with an enrollment of forty-five — the largest recorded for Patrick Henry.

The purpose of the club is to broaden the knowledge of business so that one might consider the vocational opportunities in the business field as well as the attitude needed to attain success.

The club had a very busy schedule in 1965-66. With such events as tours, parties, speakers, and a picnic in May, the members made it a point to attend each meeting.

Martha Board, V. President and Mrs. Barbee board the bus for a field trip.

Carolyn Saul distributes yearbooks at pot luck supper.

CHOIR ENTERTAINS PATRIOTS

Both choirs at Patrick Henry, directed by Mr. Ferguson, were active with rehearsals and performances.

The Freshman Choir is designed to train students for the Advanced Choir.

The Advanced Choir performed at the Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies, Baccalaureate, and Graduation. They were also called on to sing for local civic organizations. A spring tour to Maryland highlighted the choir's year.

1. The Freshman Choir sings in an assembly. 2. Mr. Ferguson directs the Advanced Choir in rehearsal. 3. Choir Officers were David Edwards, President; Walker Nelms, Vice President; Priscilla Fields, Secretary; Linda Thacker, Treasurer; Noble Marshall, Publicity; Grace Kelley and Connie Blake, Librarians; and Laura Keys, Publicity. 4. Nancy Robertson and Barbara Yost accompany the choir. 5. Members of All State State Chorus were (standing) Sharon Hodge, Gary Smith, Jack Lambert, David Edwards, Ann Janney, (seated) Connie Blake, Nancy Robertson.

GAA IS FUN

Any girl may become a member of the Girls' Athletic Association but to remain a member she must be active. These girls strive for friendship, sportsmanship, and physical fitness.

The association sponsored all girls' teams and intramurals. Throughout the year each girl worked hard to earn points toward an award — a shield, letter, pin, or trophy — according to the number of points earned. These awards are presented at the annual picnic, where new officers are also elected.

Throughout the year the GAA's have monthly meetings, game days with other schools, and sell football programs at home games.

Miss Duffy and J. Nash figure the income from the football program sales.

P. Partington, J. Deyerle, and A. Webster, officers of the GAA, check membership.

S. Habeck practices for the state meet held at P. H. this spring.

The gift of a school patron, this banner proudly announces the arrival of the band.

The catchy drill routines of the Liberty Belles add to the pageantry of half-time shows.

BAND AND BELLES

The Band and the Liberty Belles march in parades and perform in half-time shows and pep assemblies. They also give a Spring Show which promises to become an annual event. The routines used are planned by the members with the aid of Mr. Burgess, their director.

Junior Head Liberty Belle is Suzanne Sink, the Senior Head,

Mr. Burgess steps out smartly in the Harvest Bowl Parade in spite of the 90° heat.

P. H. takes pride in these All-State Band members.

Marching Band, Concert Band, Pep Band, Dance Band, Jazz Combo—take your choice—from the Patrick Henry Bands. Paul Maddock, Student Director, also led the Pep Band. Glenn Oakey, Senior Drum Major, and John Chappellear, Sophomore Drum Major, led the Marching Band.

Although most often seen in their smart purple and white uniforms, the band members also serve in many other areas of school life. They form a major portion of the orchestra for the Messiah and provide music for school functions, including graduation.

The band is supported by one of the most active parent groups in the school, the Band Boosters.

Seven members of the band, Glenn Oakey, Ann Fisher, Tommy Calhoun, Joan Lerner, Anne Sacks, Jimmy Price and Sue Fisher were members of the All-State Band.

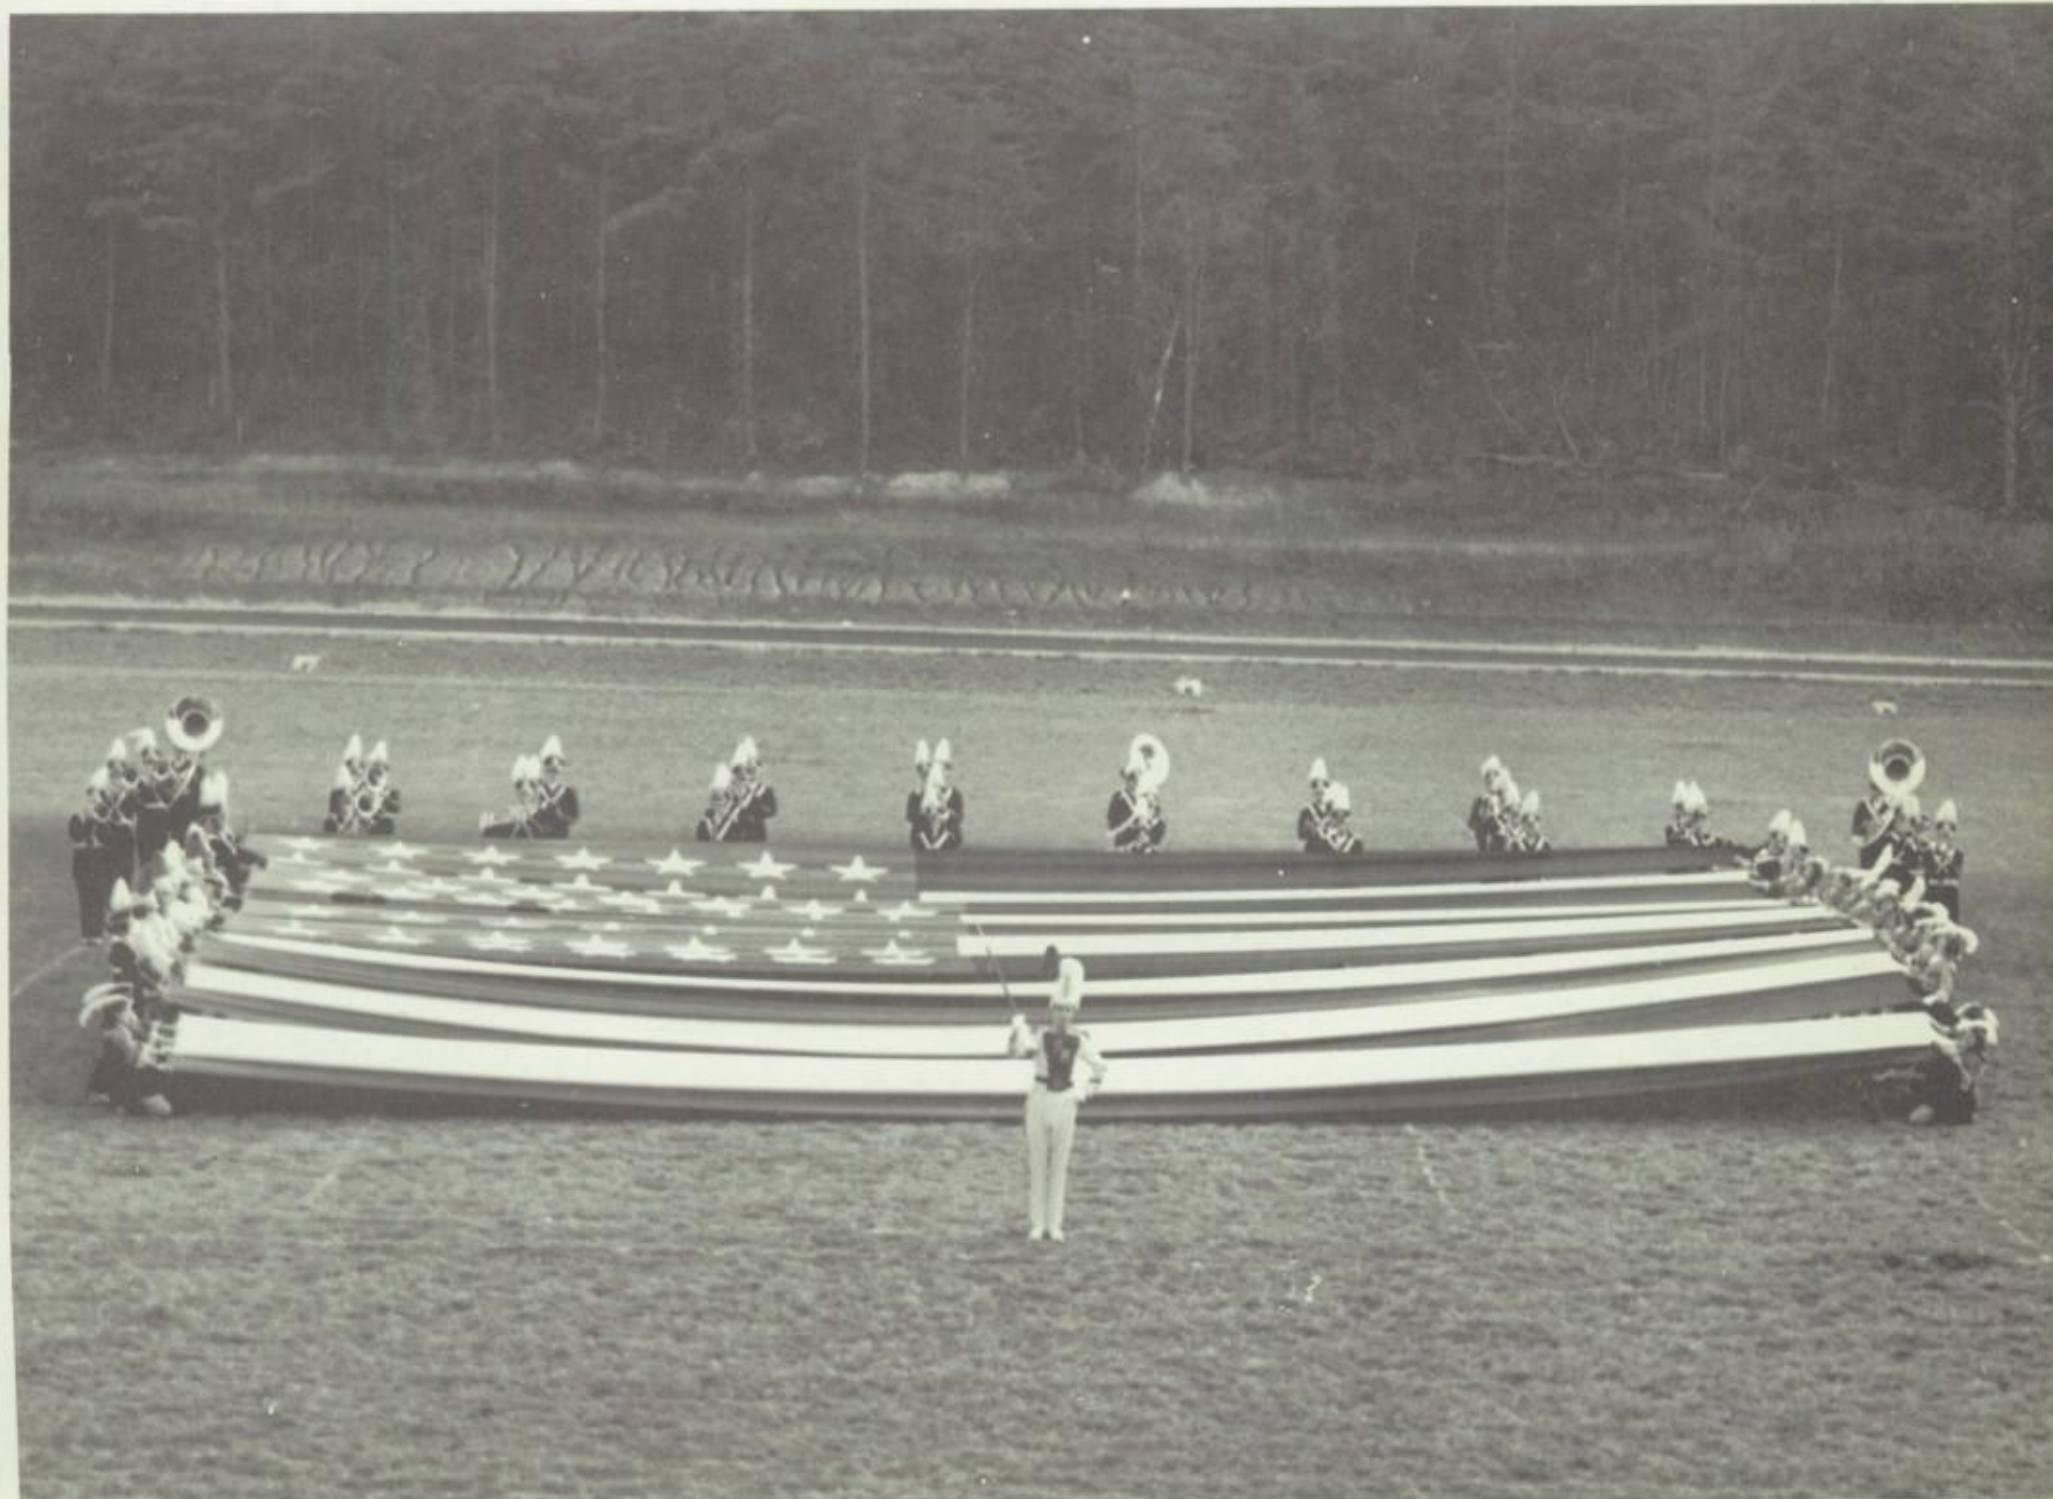

Deep purple uniforms, white cross belts buckled in gleaming brass, white spats and hat plumes — it has to be the Marching Band!

Majorettes P. Theis, B. Walker, K. Denny, G. Douglas, S. Phillips and E. Hodges.

Anne Sacks is an All-Virginia Band flutist.

A Band Booster project, this flag was the work of Mrs. Jack Oakey (parent) and Laurinda Mowry and Judy Young, Liberty Belles.

1. Kathy Krisch and Kathy Keys jump for the basketball in gym class. 2. Freshmen, wandering from hall to hall, often wondered "Where am I?" 3. Freshmen encounter more and more homework. 4. Donald Dixon, Tommy Hickam, and Jeff Singer report early in McQuilkin Hall. 5. Eddie McClure checks a difficult word in the dictionary.

This year's Freshman Class officers: Jimmy Elliott, President; Sammy Long, Vice President; Becky West, Secretary; Tommy Dabney, Treasurer; Terry Sue Martin, Executive Council Representative; Mrs. Bowen, Advisor.

Though things became a little confusing at first, the Freshman Class experienced an exciting year filled with achievement through hard study. Freshmen were faced with the newness in a senior high school and the problem of what to do for a class project.

Freshmen showed outstanding ability in athletic events, scholarship achievements, and fine arts. Much enthusiasm was shown in the numerous projects. The annual Slave Day was a successful and profit making activity. The operation of the coatroom at the Christmas Dance was taken over by Freshman Student Council members.

Because of this foundation built on a year of hard work, the class of 1969 can move on to a bright and successful Sophomore year.

The Sophomore officers: Bill Andrews, President; Richard Forth, Vice President; Linda Hall, Secretary; Bill Kirk, Treasurer; Tom Bagby, Executive Council Representative. Miss Haley served as Advisor.

The lowly freshman class of last year was this year's sophomore class, and in their progression they discovered new and better ideas. From this knowledge comes — the boys' beauty contest as a major fund raising project. A boy from each homeroom was elected to display his beauty. On the night of the contest boys began the ordeal of make-up and dressing. Soon the most beautiful boy at P. H. had been crowned "queen of 1966."

The project of respecting the flag, started last year, became the service project of the class of 1968. Under the sponsorship of Miss Haley, this emphasis on flag etiquette and conduct became a part of the tradition of Patrick Henry.

The Class of '67, just as Junior Classes in the past, found the year full of hectic planning for the Junior-Senior Prom and indecision concerning college.

Many hours were spent at Tuesday morning steering committee meetings and after school in deciding the theme, preparing the decorations, and raising money for the May 14th Junior-Senior Prom.

One of the most interesting Junior Class projects was the "Playpen Pinups" for which each teacher submitted one of his baby pictures. Students paid for the privilege of guessing the identity of the teachers from these early-in-life photos.

Suddenly confronted with their first College Board Tests and important decisions about the choice of and admission to college, the Juniors began to look ahead and plan for the future.

Officers of the Senior Class were Bob Crawford, President; Ricky Dygve, Vice President; Janis Webster, Secretary; Whitney Hanes, Treasurer; and Priscilla Fields, Executive Council Representative. Mrs. Stone was the class sponsor.

The Class of 1966 has made many advances in the last four years. The sponsor, Mrs. Stone, spent hours planning and working with the steering committee and class officers.

Future plans concerned all seniors. Since more than 86 per cent had college plans, much time was given to looking through college catalogues, filling out applications, and waiting for the day that results would come from the college of their choice.

On Senior Leadership Day students taught classes for teachers and took over all the administrative offices.

Senior Day and all the excitement it brought was soon followed by the best thing of all — Graduation.

A glance across the Patrick Henry campus reminds us of many experiences.

A GLANCE FORWARD

This meaningful year has ended, but there will be others; and each successive one should make us a more complete person. Every experience will have its effect, good or bad, on us. We have made only the first decisions; there will be countless others. The years we have spent at Patrick Henry will help us find our purposes and meet our goals.

Our discussions on God, life and sex^{etc} were quite absorbing, don't you think? Sitting on the school ground talking to our hearts content. I really enjoyed it and hoped you gained as much from it as I did.

What is it that makes some nations grow and others remain stagnant? No matter how you approach this question, it is the people involved. True Greatness comes to those who make their own destiny.

Excuse the change of ink -- but that stupid pen -- funny how in 7th grade all those rumors "you know who" kept on about -- and now she's good with them about me -- oh well, just don't you ever hate me -- i think i'd die without your friendship -- honest!

Rem- all of our diets -- esp. your starvation diet when i thought for sure you would starve yourself & you sat there losing weight while i sat there & gained it -- (and gained & gained) Danny yet says i'm not fat (Hells) by the way, what did George mean by my complex? oh well -- Rem. the first day Milgila & R. robert called me & i wanted to go out & you didn't -- then you wanted to, but i refused & then SOMEHOW we both agreed to go -- i think after you called ~~me~~ me hard headed -- rem. that?!?! oh brother i do -- rem. your first date with Bob -- the Prom - lucky -- Bonnie & Mike played cupid & now me -- a couple of 5 lbs! Rem. my date with Buddy on Dec. 29 -- oh gosh -- How snowed could anybody get?!

Kathie,
This has been a great year. It's been fun having you in my homeroom. Just think - 3 more years! I hope you will be in some of my classes next year. Be good this summer!!
Love ya always,
Ellen

Kathy,
It's been a great year, but next year gonna be greater.
I hope I see ya this summer and a lot next year.
Go a great year and a great girl
Love ya

Mrs
P.S. Good Luck with your problems !!

Kathy,
I've enjoyed knowing you this year, when if you are a fresh man! I'm sure you'll always remember Algeria
and Miss Scott,
how could you forget it. Good luck next year and have a nice summer.
Love ya!

Kathie
being the same more problems
I guess we'll have a few more because I'm homeroom. But I don't mind being a great to discuss. I guess we'll have a few more because I'm a great girl to know for being love (Bar) minute of it.
Thanks for being love (Bar)

Kathy,
It's been a great year and I hope you have a great summer
Hope you have a great summer
See ya!
Bob!

Love ya
Elizabeth

Dear Kathy (C or K?) oh well
Have a good summer and I hope we get in some of the same classes next year.
Choir should be a blast next year with the freshmen that come into it. Don't Raise it to much.

Love Ya
Sara

Kathy,

Remember our great spanish class
& our great Teacher and good ole Sammy
Don't raise too much this summer. Be good. See you in some of my classes
next year I hope.

Love ya

I have been thinking of you a great deal lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy with my work, but I always find time to think of my friends. I would like to hear from you soon. Write when you have a chance. I am your affectionate friend,
 B. O.

Dear Kathie -

It's hard for me to sign this annual yet I feel like I've got a million things to say to you. I'm glad you made a success out of your freshman year - hope your sophomore year will be just as fulfilling for both you and all those you venture to become acquainted with. Don't let the hard times that may fall upon you get you down. Just always look toward the future and be able to take in stride any obstacles that may stand in your path.

Now that all the corn is out of my system, I can get down to business!! Oh, the memories of the past year. Whenever I think of those times I don't know whether to laugh ~~of~~ or cry - I only wish I could strike a happy medium somewhere in between.

I'll never forget our ^{sorry, darn, per!!} first day - your first day at PH!! We were both a bundle of nerves. You were so worried because what's-his-face had grabbed your hand on orientation day. You know who I'm talking about, I'm sure. You were so embarrassed - after all Kathie, is the hall a proper place?? Just kidding, I'm sure.

Remember the big fight you had with Jane with me standing on the sidelines torn between the two of you?

Don't forget getting our ears done! I was so nervous - all that blood running down my neck. Pretty gross, don't you agree?

Everytime I go into "Guys" I remember our lunch with the greasy french fries and the Leggett's bathroom the same day.

June 1,
1966

Kathie.

You're one of the bestest friends anybody, Especially me, could have -- It's been GREAT, hasn't it? Remember our first acquaintances in gym -- Our, ah, Physical Fitness tests (Ha Ha!!!) Spanish, with Miss Woffenden -- (Enough of that) Remember your "Hargrave Ball" & how jealous I was - Darnit -- Peggy J. & Mr. & Mrs. Coptly -- I still wish I knew them -- (Don't be mad because I'm writing this, 'K, 'K, 'K')
Remember the 'K, 'K, 'K, 'K' conversation too -- Ellen!

It's really been great -- Remember, (how could you forget?!?) our HAIR -- Remember all my invitations for you to come to my pool -- I still want you too - K, K, K? (OK, I'll quit -- both things rite now --)

Remember June 3 -- Thank Mike & Bob for me, Kathie -- I really do owe Mike EVERYTHING

Oh yes. Remember the sound of music -- I really owe ya'll everything -- What would I be doing now & where would I be without you -- Bob, Mike & DANNY? Remember our good old fresh days & how we dreaded getting our annuals -- oh well -- I've got my picture consored in mine already -- so what the heck -- Remember today when Mr. Taylor called me, & Parsons
& we got out too -- Great! Remember J. Hardy -- Solo & Jensen Festival -- Frank -- forget the rest -- just forget Altavista now -- ok? Like you said, "Quit the band" -- I think I will, really -- Remb. when I cut your hair -- oh goodness --

Always rem. the day I went tearing into Persinger to get you & tell you that Danny was outside & you walked out, casually & he stopped & you didn't introduce me -- thanks -- this might not have happened -- I'm glad I could wait -- now he's mine! Guess "now" I'll have to take down ALL my souvenirs of good old Altavista & put some up on Hargrave & you VMI -- This really is great! Rem.
my beating, & how it hurt & I was I cried -- really cried because everything kept going ALL WRONG! go to 166
